The following information concerning COT is from the files of the Washington Field Office: COT was born in France. After obtaining a legal education, he entered the teaching profession. He entered politics in France in 1928 as a member of the Chamber of Deputies, being of the "radical Socialist Party." He continued in public life, at times as Minister in the French Cabinet, until 1938, when he became ill and consequently became only partly interested in politics. He came to the United States on August 24, 1940, and in February, 1941, took a position as a Visiting Professor at Yale University, New Haven, Connecticut. (u)

Under date of April 21, 1945, the Bureau furnished the following information concerning COT:

A review of the information in the possession of the Bureau concerning his background and activities, reflected that COT has a particularly unsavory past; that he has been identified with numerous projects which is Communist in context; that he is regarded in some quarters as a Comintern Agent, and that on several occasions, he has publicly espoused the Government of the Soviet Union, castigating at the same time "capitalistic monopolies", which, in his opinion, do not "constitute a favorable climate for the development of democracy." On one of his visits to the United States, this individual, writing in the "Free World", declared that "the contradictions of capitalism have reached the degree which makes them insupportable." In the same article, he pointed out what he regarded as "the impossibility of establishing a democratic government simultaneously with a regime founded on capitalistic monopolies. Whereupon, he declared "that the two cannot co-exist." A short time thereafter, in lauding the Soviet Union, he asserted that the Soviet Constitution of 1936 is the most democratic one that he knows. PIERRE COT, who was Master of Ceremonies under the government of the Third Republic of France, came to the United States after the fall of France and subsequent thereto left this country for Algiers in the fall of 1943. Upon his arrival in North Africa, he was formally installed on November 15, 1943 as a member of the Consultative Assembly of the French Committee of National Liberation, assuming at that time one of the exemplary seats allotted to the French radical Socialist Party by DeGAULLE's Committee. On March 18, 1944, COE arrived in Moscow on a "special mission of an undesignated nature in behalf of the French Committee of National Liberation."

It may be of interest to note that recent newspaper articles concerning HENRY WALLACE's trip to Europe report that when he arrived in France, he was met by President BIDAULT, JACQUES DUCLOS, the head of the Communist Party in France, and PIERRE COT.

Place, N.Y. (The report of Special Agent H.D. CLIFENTS, dated December 26, 1941, at Washington, D. C., entitled DAVID CORB, Advisory Commission to the Council of National Defense, reflects that DAVID CORB of 1830 R Street, an employee of the Labor Department, was a member of the Washington Committee For Democratic Action and The American Peace Mobilization, both Communist Front Groups.)

(The report of Special Agent J. ARNOLD CARTER, dated March 23, 1942, at Washington, entitled SELMA J. RUSCHIN, also known as Mrs. ISRAEL S. WEISSBRODT, Internal Security, Hatch Act) reflects that SELMA J. RUSCHIN is employed as an Economist Analyst in the Social Security Board. It was confidentially reported that she shared an apartment with MARIE RINCH and that both of these persons were out and out Communists. Informant stated that she was definitely the Communist type and if Russia were not on the side of the United States she would be dangerous to the United States.) A New York report in this same case by Special Agent R. S. GARNER, dated April 1, 1942, reflects that SARAH WEISSBRODT, 485 Shepherd Avenue, Brooklyn, signed a 1939 and 1940 Communist petition for New York City and the New York State elections.

The indices of the American League For Peace and Democracy reflects that SELMA J. RUSCHIN was a member of that organization. It is not known whether this individual is any relation to the I. S. WEISSBRODT from whom the subject received the above communication.

A letter from SIDNEY S. COHEN, dated March 19, 1947, which was of a personal nature and adds nothing to the investigation of this case.

A letter from MARINA S. DEAN, 5036 Sheridan Road, Chicago, Illinois, postmarked February 26, 1947, which was of a personal nature.

It was noted she commented on the fact that HAROLD GLASSER had sat at the right of Count SPORZA which in her opinion meant that HAROLD was the guest of honor. She commented that she had read in the paper that Italy was feeling badly about Trieste and that they feel this will mean another war. She also commented that in her opinion the LILIENTHAL Affair "is revolting". She stated that she had been reading everything she could find on it and she thinks Senator McKELLAR is a stupid fool. She also advised FAYE not to worry that HAROLD could always get into private enterprise and could make more money than he does in the government.

(Information concerning MARINA S. DEAN has previously been set forth in the investigation of this subject).

The informant also furnished a letter from EVELYN T. MILLER, 6928 Paxton Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, addressed to Mrs. FAYE GLASSER, postmarked February 24, 1947. This was a personal letter in which EVELYN advised her husband SAUEL was now in private business for himself and that business at this time is slow. She advised that he had still not been able to find an apartment but they were living with "the folks".

SAUEL T. MILLER

Information concerning this individual has previously been set forth.

A Christmas card addressed to the GLASSER'S from Mrs. PINDELL. (The files of this office contain no information concerning PINDELL).

A letter dated March 18, 1947 from SAUEL T. MILLER, Chicago, Illinois, in which he asked if HAROLD had returned to this country. He said he had received a postal card from him in January from Berlin. In this letter he asked HAROLD to write to him and advise him of the latest developments and also asks if the atmosphere around the Treasury Department has changed now that SNYDER is more set by time in his post. He advised HAROLD'S business was working out all right. He also inquires if SOLOMAN ADLER is still in China and asks if LARRY is in Paris.

A letter from RICHARD V. GILBERT addressed to the subject from 1147 Connecticut Avenue, Washington, D. C., dated March 14, 1947 in which GILBERT states he is deeply disturbed in the relations of Britain to Palestine. He suggests that a group "of us" met to hear DR. EMANUEL NEWMANN review the current situation. He stated he had invited DR. NEWMANN to talk at 8 o'clock, Tuesday, on March 18, 1947 at the Statler Hotel private dining room number four. He hopes that GLASSER can attend this meeting.

(A report of Special Agent L. C. CLEMENTS, dated March 26, 1942, at Washington, D. C., entitled RICHARD VINCENT GILBERT, Internal Security, Hatch Act, reflects he was born JERACHMEL GOLDBERG and that he was employed as a Director of the OPA. The Special Committee on Un-American Activities listed GILBERT as a member of the Washington Committee For Democratic Action. The files of the OCM indicate GILBERT gave incorrect information concerning family history but that his loyalty was in no way questioned in that investigation. ANNA and NATHAN ROSEN, sister and brother-in-law of GILBERT were signers in the Communist Party petition in Pennsylvania. The Pennsylvania State Police has a subversive inclination file on RICHARD VINCENT GILBERT. In a sworn signed statement, GILBERT denied being a member of the Washington Committee For Democratic Action, The American Peace Mobilization and The Communist Party. He was described by informants as being extremely leftist but there is no proof that he was ever officially affiliated with the Communist Party.)

A letter dated March 19, 1947 to Mrs. FAYE GLASSER from MARINA S. DEAN which was of a personal nature and reflected that she was glad to hear that HARRY had arrived at home.

An envelope postmarked March 21, 1947 at Washington, D. C. with a return address of 510 11th Street, N.Y.

Letter dated March 7, 1947 from JUANITA (believed to be JUANITA GRIFFITH) to HAROLD GLASSER. In this letter she advised him being at Trieste and seeing DELL and the boys. She also inquires of HAROLD if he saw PAT (believed referring to GARDIE PETERSON). She advised that she recently had a nice long letter from MIKE a month ago from London. She said that she and SOL (believed to be SALOMON ADLER) are very busy these days. She stated that she and ADLER had been in Shanghai two weeks ago and had seen the CAS'S (believed to be L. J. CASSIDY) and DOROTHY LETZEL. (Information concerning SALOMON ADLER, JUANITA GRIFFITH and L. J. CASSIDY is set forth in report in instant case dated March 25, 1947.)

[REDACTED] whose identity is known to the Bureau, advised this office that on September 29, 1945 Mrs. ABE WEISSBRODT of 140 East 19th Street, New York City, was telephonically contacted by HAROLD GLASSER at Buch 4-95-94. The New York Field Division furnished the following information concerning this individual in a letter dated May 20, 1946:

Mr. FRANK HALAM, superintendent, 146 East 19th Street, Brooklyn, New York, advised that Mr. and Mrs. WEISSBRODT had resided in apartment 5-E in this building for approximately one year, prior to the time they moved in January of 1946. He stated that they moved to Washington, D. C., but he did not know their address. Mr. WEISSBRODT had been in the United States Army, but was discharged in the Fall of 1945. He is about 35 to 40 years of age, and his wife is slightly younger. They have one child, born in the summer of 1945. He stated that Mr. WEISSBRODT, after being discharged from the Army, obtained employment in Washington, D. C. and for two or three months prior to January of 1946, made repeated trips to Washington, D. C. and finally moved there. The only prior address he had for these people was for Mrs. WEISSBRODT who listed her former address as 67 Broad Street, New York City. It was ascertained from the Post Office that ABRAHAM W. WEISSBRODT, and SYLVIA WEISSBRODT moved from 146 East 19th Street, New York to 1205 Trenton Terrace, S.E., Washington, D. C. in January of 1946. The address 67 Broad Street, mentioned above, is the address of the International Telephone and Telegraph Building. Some of the offices in this building are the following: Commercial Cable Company, Federal Telephone and Radio Corporation, Mackay Radio and Telephone Company, and an office of the Army Air Forces.

The indices of the New York Field Division, revealed that on June 23, 1938, ABRAHAM W. WEISSERODT, of 329 East 176th Street, was called to the New York Office, for an interview in regard to his application for a job as a Special Agent. His application was forwarded to the Bureau, but he was not accepted for employment. It could not be ascertained whether or not this was the same ABRAHAM W. WEISSERODT, who is the subject of inquiry.

No further investigation of this party is being conducted by the New York Field Division, in view of the fact that Mr. and Mrs. ~~WEISSERODT~~ presently reside in Washington, D. C.

Reference is made to report in instant case dated February 14, 1947 where it was set forth that through a confidential source it was determined that subject had received a package from LINDA DAVID, of 19 Cedar Drive, Baltimore, Maryland. In a letter dated April 1, 1947, the Baltimore Field Division furnished the following information concerning LINDA DAVID:

Miss ~~DIANES MILLER~~, Secretary to the Manager of the Oak Grove Apartments in Essex, Maryland (a suburb of Baltimore), advised that ALVIN M. DAVID and his wife, LINDA, resided at Apartment 19C, Cedar Drive. She advised that the only information she had concerning this family was that Mr. DAVID was employed as a Section Chief at the Social Security Board in the Equitable Building, and had formerly rented from S. L. Hammerman & Company, in the Court Square Building. None of their social or business activities were known to Miss ~~MILLER~~.

A check of the records of the Retail Merchants Credit Bureau, Inc., reflected that ALVIN M. DAVID, of the above address, was an economist with the Social Security Board, 37 years of age, married, and had resided at the Oak Grove Apartments since September, 1945. It was further indicated that he had been employed by the Social Security Board as an economist since 1936 and had previously resided at 6907 Dunmanway and prior to that on South High Street, Arlington, Virginia.

An addendum to this report reflected information from Arlington, Virginia, dated February 27, 1942, indicating that the DAVIDS had resided at 3113 S. High Street, in Arlington for four

There was no record of LINDA DAVID in the Credit Bureau other than that set forth together with her husband.

At the office of S. L. Hammerman & Company, in the Court Square Building, it was determined only that ALVIN M. DAVID had rented an apartment on Dunmanway in Dundalk, Maryland. The period of his occupancy and any other information concerning him was unavailable.

The records of Local Board #5, Dundalk, Maryland, were negative with respect to ALVIN M. DAVID.

There was no record of ALVIN M. DAVID or LINDA DAVID in the indices of the Baltimore Field Division, in the records of the Baltimore Police Department or at the Office of the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles for the State of Maryland.

A description of LINDA DAVID as furnished by Miss DOLORES MILLER is as follows:

Mr. W. F. KNEPPER, Vice President of the Citizens Savings Bank, 401 W. The report of Special Agent LAMBERT G. ZANDER dated September 17, 1946 in reference to this investigation reflects that WAYNARD GERTLER, a subject of this case, filed an application on January 4, 1943 for a position as an economist, Board of Economic Warfare, in which he gave as a reference the name of FRANZ NEUMANN, 201 G Street, N. W., an employee of the BEW. This report reflects that one FRANCIS NEUMAN of 250 West 57th Street, New York City was a dues paying member of the National Lawyers Guild in 1941. It could not be stated whether this individual was identical with FRANZ NEUMANN whose name GERTLER gave as a reference. However, in view of the fact that GOLD was formerly employed by the Foreign Economic Administration, which was the successor to the Board of Economic Warfare, it is believed that the person named as a reference by WAYNARD GERTLER is the same as the one from whom BELA GOLD received the letter set forth above under date of March 24, 1947.

Inquiry in the neighborhood of 3416 10th Place, S. E. reflects that the GOLDS live in an apartment development known as Trenton Terrace. The manager of this development is Mrs. LILLIAN BENJAMIN who was the subject of a Hatch Act investigation by the Washington Field Office and concerning whom there is considerable information in the Washington Field Office files pertaining to her connections with known communists or communist front organizations.

It was further learned that numerous other persons whose activities have been investigated concerning communist affiliations live in this same apartment house development. b7c

During the period January 1, 1946 through May 31, 1946 the GOLDS made certain long distance telephone calls. North Conway, New Hampshire, No. 861-PO

The Boston Office advised that MARJORIE S. TENNEY, supervisor at the North Conway telephone office, reported telephone number 861-PO as an incorrect number. This telephone number is listed for an individual named BLANCHE O'DONNELL, according to information furnished by the Baltimore Office. The Baltimore Office furnished the following information concerning BLANCHE O'DONNELL:

NATHAN E. WEBB, postmaster at Mount Airy, Maryland, advised that BLANCHE O'DONNELL had been receiving mail at that post office since approximately November 1, 1945. Mr. WEBB knew very little about BLANCHE O'DONNELL other than that she operated farm property on the outskirts of Mount Airy.

HARRY WEBB, president of the Bank of Mount Airy, Mount Airy, Maryland, advised that BLANCHE O'DONNELL came to Mount Airy, Maryland on November 14, 1945 and bought some farm property located on the outskirts of Mount Airy. She farms part of this land at the present time and also sells cakes, pies, and other pastries at her farmhouse. He stated that she appeared to be an intelligent woman but that he knew very little about her background. She stated to Mr. WEBB when she bought this property that her husband was killed in the war and as far as WEBB was able to state, she lives on her farm by herself. He stated that no one at Mount Airy knew anything concerning BLANCHE O'DONNELL's background. The New York Office furnished the following information concerning this telephone number and the subscriber thereto:

The indices of the New York Office fail to reflect any information pertaining to FANNIE GOLDBERG, 2111 Albermarle Road, Brooklyn, New York, telephone BU 2-6096. The Board of Elections, New York City, reflected no record for FANNIE GOLDBERG but did reflect a record for an EDITH and a HELEN GOLDBERG at 2111 Albermarle Road, Brooklyn, New York, Apartment 3N.

The Credit Bureau of Greater New York was checked and failed to reflect any record for FANNIE, EDITH, or HELEN GOLDBERG. The records of Confidential Informant [REDACTED] whose identity is known to the Bureau, reflected that telephone number BU 2-6096 was installed on July 28th, 1942 in the name of FANNIE GOLDBERG at 2111 Albermarle Road, Brooklyn, New York. This individual was listed as a widow having a private income.

They are the daughters of FANNIE GOLDBERG who passed away during the early part of 1945. They have been known to reside at this address for the past five years and both are employed in a clerical capacity at the CHICAGO WINDOW CLEANING COMPANY, 156 East 42nd Street, New York City, telephone EXington 2-7938.

Hyannis, Massachusetts, 1847 (X) u

The Boston Office furnished the following information concerning this telephone number and the subscriber thereto:

It was discreetly ascertained that Reverend CARL SCHULTZ, Minister of the Federated Church, Hyannis, Massachusetts, a man of excellent reputation, whose fealty is unquestioned, received a telephone call from ABBIE WHITE at telephone number Hyannis 1847 on May 23, 1946, and no other long distance call that day. She was a housekeeper or maid at 8007 North Pershing Drive, Arlington, Virginia, when she made the call. The purpose of the call was to have Reverend SCHULTZ stop on his way South and meet the minister of the Methodist Church at Arlington, Virginia who is a friend of ABBIE WHITE. The minister's name was MYERS. (X) u

ABBIE WHITE is a stable, settled old widow, who spent most of her life on Cape Cod. She was employed at the Hyannis State Teachers' College at Hyannis, Massachusetts for many years as a cook, and upon leaving that position she worked as a housekeeper in Darien, Connecticut. She was a member of the Federated Church at Hyannis and was well respected on Cape Cod. She had a son in the service in World War II. (X) u

By letter dated July 22, 1946 a request was also made to check telephone number Harwich, Massachusetts, 148-1, supposedly called by the subjects on January 6, 1946. That telephone is listed to Dr. ERNEST S. OSBORNE, Main Street, West Dennis, who is very loyal, and who is an American of excellent reputation on Cape Cod where he has practiced medicine for many years. ABBIE WHITE lived for many years in Harwich and Dennis and probably was a patient of Dr. OSBORNE, or a friend, thus accounting for the above-mentioned call. (X) u

By letter dated July 22, 1946 a similar request was made to check the telephone number Hyannis 1544-1, listed to SOLOMON ELLIS. The subjects allegedly called ELLIS or Mrs. REBECCA EENSON at that number on February 10, 1946. (X) u

SOLOMON THATCHER ELLIS, Main Street, West Yarmouth, was born at Harwich, Massachusetts May 30, 1889 and has spent about all of his life on Cape Cod. He is a loyal Cape Cod Yankee type American. He (X) u is a carpenter and he also owns some cabins known as the Old Mill Cabins in West Yarmouth. (S) u

Mrs. REBECCA BENSON is the daughter of JOSEPH RYDER of Harwich, Massachusetts and she lives with CHARLES CLARK and works as a housekeeper for him in West Yarmouth. Both she and CLARK have excellent reputations and are loyal old "Cape Cod Yankees". Mrs. BENSON and ABBIE WHITE are old friends and neighbors from Harwich, Massachusetts, and it appears quite likely that the calls made to Cape Cod towns and attributed to the subjects of this case were made by ABBIE WHITE. It should be noted that ABBIE WHITE was the nurse and maid hired by the GOLES to take care of their infant son. (S) u

Confidential Informant [REDACTED] furnished the following information concerning the activities of HISS from March 1 through March 31, 1947. b2 b7D

On March 8, PRISCILLA HISS advised CATHERINE HISS that she and TONY, her son, were going up to New York with ALGER possibly next week. During the latter part of that week they planned to stay at the FOOTES' (PH) or at the FLANDER's (PH). CATHERINE mentioned that DONALD HISS, her husband, is leaving soon for a ten-day trip to Guatemala City.

On March 26, 1947, ALGER HISS advised ISABELLE (MAHAFFEY) that they were in New York City until Thursday and they went to Chappaqua, New York.

LODA MAE DAVIS, on March 26, at 10:35 P. M., contacted HENRY COLLINS at the HISS home, advising him to contact Operator 67 for a long-distance call. Immediately thereafter, COLLINS made this call and talked with an unidentified man in New York City about his divorce action. COLLINS informed that he would go up to New York tomorrow or Friday and talk this matter over further.

The next morning at 8:00 A. M., HENRY COLLINS (at the HISS home) contacted LODA MAE DAVIS at the COLLINS residence, requesting her to bring some things in to town in the car with her as HENRY planned to go to New York for a few days. HENRY advised her what articles of clothing to place in his grip and then told her to bring the folders labeled "New Constitutions", "Greece", "Democracy Abroad" (one copy), "Foreign Election Summary".

On March 28, PRISCILLA HISS talked with Mrs. LONG (PH) about the Bryn Mawr College Endowment presentation to be held April 7th on, "How Russia Does Business".

(It is to be noted that ALGER HISS was scheduled to preside as chairman at this meeting.)

Mrs. LONG indicated that the speakers at the meeting are scheduled to be: RAY ELLIS, Raytheon Manufacturing Company; HANS HEYMAN, a German refugee who is an instructor at Sampson College in New York, and who has written a book entitled, "You Can Do Business With Russia". She further informed that ERNEST C. ~~PROCES~~ of the Department of Commerce and LIVINGSTON ~~HARTLEY~~ were to be the panel members at the meeting. Mrs. EDNG then discussed the meeting of the Bryn Mawr Endowment Committee which was held last week. She stated that she had the speakers to dinner and they had a better time at the dinner than at the discussion. She stated that PHILIP E. ~~MOSLEY~~ was not a good orator and although he had a knowledge of Russia, he refused to take a position on any current events, and that made it dull for the audience at the meeting. Thereafter, they discussed a meeting of the Bryn Mawr Alumni and stated that DOROTHEA GLAZIER had been working on the Alumni Drive.

It is to be noted that the Bryn Mawr presentation of March 25th on "Russian Foreign Policy, Czarist and Soviet", had as its chairman, Sir BERNARD PARES, a former British Government Advisor on Russia, and as its speaker, PHILIP E. ~~MOSLEY~~, presently of Columbia University and a United States Advisor to the Moscow Conference.

On March 29, JO ~~ABRAHAM~~ advised that HERBERT and she were going to be in town this afternoon and would like to visit the HISS family. PRISCILLA invited them up.

On the same day, PRISCILLA HISS indicated that the FLANDERS planned to spend a night next week at their home.

Rusk
On March 30, ALGER HISS contacted DEAN ~~RUSK~~ (State Department, Extension 2947, on Telephone Temple 8798), asking him to have lunch with him tomorrow. They agreed to meet at the Metropolitan Club. DEAN said, "I have been trying to see you but this Greek thing has us going around with our heads off." DEAN indicated they had managed to bring the United Nations back into the picture. DEAN said he thought the United Nations pressure from the public had made a very important impression upon the Department. HISS agreed.

MISCELLANEOUS

The Baltimore Field Division has furnished the following information on Mrs. HENRY D. ~~FANSLER~~, Preston, Maryland, Telephone Number 2677, who telephonically contacted subject ALGER HISS. It appears that Mrs. FANSLER and her husband reside at R. F. D. No. 1, Preston, and are comparative newcomers to the vicinity. They live on a small farm and take no active part in the affairs in Preston. They have a small account with the Provident Street Bank but they do little business through this institution. Mrs. FANSLER is approximately fifty years of age and they came to Preston about ten years ago. HENRY ~~FANSLER~~ was described as being somewhat of a drunkard and reportedly came to Preston from New York City. They were not known to have expressed any political opinions in this vicinity. Because of the small size of the farm on which they reside, the informant in Preston stated it was necessary that they have an outside income in order to maintain their standard of living. Mr. FANSLER at one time was employed by the Preston News in Preston, Maryland, and by the Sears Company in Cambridge, Maryland.

The Baltimore Field Division has furnished the following information on BARBARA RYAN ANDERSON and L. L. ANDERSON of Saint Michaels, Maryland, who on several different occasions contacted subject ALGER HISS through Telephone Number 41-M at Saint Michaels.

At the present time Mr. and Mrs. ANDERSON reside at Calera 72, Villa Obregon, Mexico, D. F., and the mail received by them at Saint Michaels is forwarded to the tenant manager, Mr. GEORGE DEPIBAUGH, who at the present time is maintaining the estate for the ANDERSONS.

Re: IRVING KAPLAN (X) u

The following information is being reported by Special Agent EDWARD L. GRAMPP.

The mail cover on KAPLAN revealed that he received a communication from Miss P. SOLOW, 2076 Creston Avenue, Bronx, New York, no date given. (X) u

~~Confidential Informant~~ [redacted] furnished the following information on the activities of IRVING KAPLAN and his wife, DOROTHY KAPLAN, for the period March 16 through 31, 1947. (X) u b2 b7D

On March 16, 1947, the informant revealed that IRVING KAPLAN discussed with BOB GREENBERG the possibilities of the latter finding employment. KAPLAN told BOB of seeing GEORGE SILVERMAN and JOE CENTURI and the letters they were to write in an effort to help BOB find a job. They discussed at length the various possibilities of employment for GREENBERG. (X) u

On the same date, KAPLAN contacted GEORGE SILVERMAN, at which time the latter indicated he was going out to see MURRAY (LATIMER) this afternoon. They discussed the possibility of MURRAY going into business with SILVERMAN and possibly KAPLAN. KAPLAN stated he gathered that MURRAY was quite enthusiastic about the prospects but was reserving committing himself. KAPLAN stated his impression is that the only thing MURRAY is encouraged on is the insurance and pension scheme which MURRAY plans to set up for the unions. They discussed at length insurance, pensions, and unions. GEORGE indicated that he and JOE (CENTURI) were going to write letters in an effort to find GREENBERG a position. GEORGE stated he wrote one for KLEPPER (phonetic) and went all out for him and planned to do the same for GREENBERG. (X) u

IRVING KAPLAN on the same day invited IRV (IRVING CHESKIN) and LESTER (KLEPPER) to his home tomorrow night for dinner. It was indicated that LESTER was in New York whereupon KLEPPER said he would call LESTER tomorrow at NHA, telephone REpublic-7500, extension 5731. (X) u

Later that day, JACK KROOKER (phonetic) reached DOROTHY KAPLAN who informed that he was in town for the day with EDITH and family and was calling DOROTHY because he was leaving Thursday for Tokyo with the Army in claims work. He was out at his brother-in-laws (LIMBERMAN, 5001 - 4th Street, N. W., TAYLOR-9053). They chatted. (X) u about the family affairs and CHARLOTTE HUNT, whom they both know. DOROTHY said she and KAPLAN would like to see him before he left. (X) u

Subsequent to the above contact, an unidentified man told IRVING KAPLAN that he had just heard from BEADIE MAGDOFF telling of HARRY's call that the Board had dissolved and they did everything HARRY wanted them to do. HARRY is going to be financed for three months and also is getting a secretary. The three months will be devoted to getting $50,000 for research. KAPLAN then made reference to the Greek situation, stating the atmosphere is very much better now and he believes that there is a chance to lick it. Thereafter, the unidentified individual said he had changed KAPLAN's program stuff. The party contacting KAPLAN said that on the program, KAPLAN had (1) monopoly (2) labor and sound security and (3) foreign relations. Thereupon, the individual calling substituted items in place of the above three mentioned and discussed them with KAPLAN. (X) u

On March 17, 1947, DOROTHY KAPLAN contacted PEGGY NIERENBERG. The latter explained she had changed her telephone number from ADAMS-8215 to MICHIGAN-2650. PEGGY stated NIERY is staying in his job at Housing although he had been offered a job teaching Economics at the University of Farragut, Idaho. PEGGY was invited to the KAPLAN home. (X) u

The informant revealed that JANE STONE and her husband, ED, were invited to the KAPLAN home that night for dinner. (X) u

Later that day, ED FITZGERALD contacted IRVING KAPLAN to arrange a meeting on Wednesday afternoon between HARRY MAGDOFF, VERA BLISSIE, ED, and IRVING. (X) u

Subsequently, LESTER KLEPPER indicated to DOROTHY KAPLAN that he and IRV (CHESKIN) would be out to the KAPLAN home on Tuesday of next week for dinner. LESTER said he knows of a $10,000 job open in Germany for KAPPY if he wants it. DOROTHY said KAPPY will see him about it. (X) u

Thereafter, IRVING KAPLAN reached Miss LEE, extension 64 at the Capitol (Senate War Investigating Committee). Miss LEE asked if KAPLAN got those, to which KAPLAN replied he had but KAPLAN told her that in the stuff she sent him there were no hearings. Miss LEE said she forgot them and will take care of it and send KAPLAN everything they have up to date and will try to dig up everything else she can. (X) u

CONFIDENTIAL

Thereafter, KAPLAN said, "On this personal stuff I wanted to see. Do you have it in the office so I could see it sometime?" Miss LEE said that if he means that stuff on the Executive Session, she does not have it but can get it. KAPLAN stated he was interested in the time from August, 1944 or the end of July. Miss LEE said that the list indicates "August 16, DONALD NELSON and EDWARD LOCKE". In answer to KAPLAN's inquiry re General CLAY, Miss LEE said that he was in the public session and she can send him that part. She stated further that when KAPLAN wants to see the executive parts he is to let her know in the morning and she will get it over there and he can read it there. KAPLAN indicated that this Wednesday morning would be all right. qu

Informant stated that on this same day KAPLAN reached LESTER KLEPPER and they conversed regarding aiding BOB GREENBERG to find a position. Thereafter they discussed a job which KAPLAN might be interested in with the Inter-Governmental Committee for Refugees at $9800 per annum. KLEPPER then said he had luncheon in New York with WALTER PLATT (phonetic) about a month ago and they talked about KAPLAN. Thereafter they discussed work in Europe for KAPLAN and the possibility of DOROTHY KAPLAN getting a job in Europe. Thereafter they arranged to have luncheon together on March 18, 1947. qu

On March 18, 1947, DOROTHY KAPLAN cancelled a meeting which was to be held that evening between Dr. AXELROD (Dr. S. J. AXELROD, 3717 Lyons Lane, Alexandria, Virginia), Dr. DURANT (O. D. DURANT, 708 Pendleton, Alexandria, Virginia, a negro), and Dr. LINDO (Dr. AUBREY C. LINDO, negro physician). qu

The informant indicated that on March 22, 1947, the KAPLANS and the SILVERMANS spent the afternoon together at the latter's residence. qu

On March 24, 1947, PAUL FRIEDLAND told DOROTHY KAPLAN of a new job with the Army and Navy Munitions Board which Mr. HADEN advised her to take and which she thought she would take in view of the current situation. qu

On the same day, IRVING KAPLAN contacted the office of Under Secretary of State ACHESON, asking where he could get copies of the latter's testimony before the Senate Committee today and the documents filed with the House on Greece which were released over the weekend. qu

Later that morning, HARRY MAGDOFF told IRVING KAPLAN that VEET (BASSIE) saw HENRY (WALLACE) Saturday and the latter was very much interested in his Madison Square Garden speech at a protest meeting of the PCA over the Greek crisis. HENRY is interested but VEET didn't get the idea that he would do anything. KAPPY said they should tell VEET that the idea was not to present the thing as something for HENRY to do but for him to give it the "go ahead" signal. HARRY agreed. Thereupon, MAGDOFF and KAPLAN arranged to have luncheon together with VEET BASSIE. (S)u

The next day, PALMER WEBBER conversed with DOROTHY KAPLAN regarding some work which she was doing for him. KAPPY then conversed with PALMER and said that on this FAO report he (KAPPY) had mentioned, a Utah professor. KAPPY can't remember his name but on the mission also was MORDECAI EZEKIAL who is available here in Washington. PALMER said okay. PALMER said he would see KAPPY in town tomorrow. (S)u

It was indicated the same day that SAM and BEA NORMAN, ELMER and JEAN NORMAN, and PAUL FRIEDLAND all met at the KAPLAN residence on this date. (S)u

On March 26, 1947, PALMER WEBBER spoke to KAPPY and told him that on these documents the one from the Treasury is in their Law Department Library and they were a little finicky about it. The one in the Federal Reserve was done for the War Department and yet one can't get to it without Congressional authorization. PALMER told KAPLAN to relax on both of these things until he can clear the way on it. (S)u

IRVING KAPLAN on March 27, 1947, contacted HERMAN EDELSBERG (secretary to Senator PEPPER), stating that he heard over the radio last night that Senator BARKLEY had said the Senate Committee would discharge the Bill by the end of the week (Greek Aid bill). KAPLAN asked what about getting some testimony down there. KAPLAN thought it was ridiculous because they said they were going to lay the thing before the public and nothing happens but some general statements. HERMAN said that they were working on that. KAPLAN wondered if he ought to say something in his letter to BEANIE BALDWIN about it. HERMAN said BEANIE has already been told to get WALLACE. (S)u

HERMAN said WALLACE is taking the position that he wants to be invited and doesn't want to insist on being heard. KAPLAN said (S)u

he thought they could arrange it. He thought there ought to be a bunch of these Greek UNRRA people here yet who ought to be able to come down and tell the background of this thing. They discussed at length getting people to testify on the Bill. HERMAN said that men of national reputation are needed to testify. ~~DU~~

The informant revealed that on March 27, 1947, GIBBY NEEDLEMAN was in contact with the KAPLANS and the VAN TASSELS. On March 28, 1947, DOROTHY told LILLY PATERSON that committee meeting last night, ANNE FLORY (phonetic) brought in a Mrs. ELLEN S. MCKENRY, 312 Ashby, Alexandria, Virginia, 7641, who wanted to join the Southern Conference. Mrs. MCKENRY is a Red Cross worker. ~~DU~~

Later that morning, IRVING KAPLAN discussed with ED FITZGERALD suggestions on a draft with specific reference to the Publication Section. At the conclusion of this discussion, ED asked if KAPLAN had been in touch with VEET. After receiving a negative answer, ED stated he doesn't think anything further has happened from VEET's standpoint. KAPLAN said he thought VEET agreed that the thing to do was for him to talk to WALLACE and the only problem was how and when. ~~DU~~

KAPLAN said VEET doesn't feel that he can make a specific appointment with WALLACE to discuss this thing and that HAROLD YOUNG is no help but he can't treat him any other way for fear he might get the brush-off. ED said that KAPPY should get in contact with VEET for the latter has some interesting points which would interest KAPPY. ~~DU~~

On March 28, 1947, PALMER WEBBER (CIO, PAC) told KAPPY he would like to put him to work tomorrow on a lot of material he has and suggested that he come in to get it. WEBBER said he wanted to get a speech written tomorrow and when KAPLAN asked him for whom, WEBBER said "for a certain character". KAPPY said he doesn't know if he could do a speech for the "guy" but might be able to help WEBBER. ~~DU~~

KAPLAN asked if WEBBER had seen today's New York Times, stating that this paper had a letter sent to it on March 18, 1947, by a fellow named COUVARAS (phonetic), denouncing the paper for publishing an article by SEDGEWICK (phonetic), saying that the Elsas (phonetic) which was sold out "collaborated with the Nazis". WEBBER said the man who wrote the letter is named KOSTIS COUVARAS and that he, WEBBER, saw him today. KAPPY thought COUVARAS to be a good man to have testify and WEBBER agreed. (X) u

KAPPY asked, "Are they getting any where with that?" to which WEBBER answered "No". KAPPY thinks it would be a good idea to organize a floor fight in the Senate on all of these promises to lay the thing before the public. (X) u

On March 5, 1947, MARY JANE arrived in Washington, D.C., having spent several days in New York City. Informant [redacted] has advised she sent the following letter to her husband, PHILIP OLIN KEENEY:

"New York, Tuesday evening 4 March (1947)
7:00 p.m.

"Dearest Love; I've just had a shower and changed my clothes for the party tonight, and will make a start on a report of the day's activities to you before Ursula (WASSERMAN) comes in from a late afternoon meeting. I was so tired when I came in that I decided I'd rather have a bath than go out somewhere for a bite to eat, and now that I'm refreshed by same, I'd rather write to you, and have a bowl of cereal to sustain life, if Ursula has some—I can't see any. If not, I'll break down and drink a glass of milk—it's a good way to start an evening of drinking. We're just having cokes for Rae Bernstein and the (MAYNARD) Gertlers, sherry for them as likes it and whiskey and soda for the rest, along with crackers and cheese. I'm buying the supplies, naturally.

"The one dud I struck yesterday was the Farrell Publications man, who is a friend of Groff and Lucy (MAGELIN). They pay well—5¢ a word as compared to the DNA's 2¢—but the angle they want is kind of sickening. They like crime, unusual sex stories complete with cheap details, and they'd love an article about what the Express thinks of the American GIs. I thanked Mr. Irwin and said he might hear from me, privately resolving that this must never happen. -

Brankus

"On the train out to Westport I dozed, and was glad for the nap for we had an evening of the most feverish conversation which was a race against time. RUTH (MC KINNY BRANSTEN) looks pretty much the same except that there are lines in her face and a strained look about her mouth; she said she had gained 25 pounds since she came home from the hospital on Christmas Eve. RICHARD (BRANSTEN) is as keen as ever. He plied me with questions about my mission and yours, the people we have encountered, our impressions and reactions, etc., etc. They are sailing April 16th on the Veendam for Rotterdam where they will be met by Christina and Bill, and be escorted by the latter to Brussels where C. and B. are supposed to have waiting for them a house or apartment complete with maid, nurse for Eileen and tutor for the boys. Eileen is a perfectly lovely child with the most gorgeous eyes I have encountered for some time. Patrick is a big fellow who looks several years more than his 12, and Tommy is the only smallish member of the family. We didn't go into any of the details of the controversy since Richard said this was water under the dam and there were much more important things to talk about.

"I asked them about a contact with the New Yorker and Ruth offered at once to telephone this morning to two people she knows in that office. Richard interjected that he thought a much better idea was for them to put me in touch with their agent, a Mrs. Edith Haggard of Curtis Brown, whom they consider top-notch and who, according to Richard, would get a lot farther with the New Yorker people than I would, even with an introduction from Ruth. Richard added that the chances were once I got into the habit of writing I'd need an agent badly, because I would be very likely to want to do things for which none of the contacts I had made myself would offer an outlet. So we left it at that, with Ruth promising to call Mrs. Haggard this morning. She certainly must have given me a whale of a buildup for Mrs. Haggard was extremely cordial and interested, yet according to Ursula, she is one of the most difficult people in N.Y. to get in touch with, chiefly because she is considered one of the five or six top agents. After I had talked with her a few minutes, she asked why in thunder I didn't do fiction, to which I responded that maybe I would. At any rate, I feel I've committed myself to a writing career with all the commitments I've made, and that I'd jolly well better come through.

"R&R (RICHARD and RUTH BRANSTEN) sent you the warmest greetings, and are so happy that you have a chance to do the work you are doing. Without any instigation from me, Richard remarked the irony of your finding in a former enemy country the opportunity to do something you've been denied here. All in all, it was a delightful evening, one that left a warm glow, and if I was sure before that they had not sold out, I'm trebly sure now. How they'll make their peace with the group they formerly associated with, I don't know, but I feel confident their usefulness is not over, not by a long shot.

"I went to see Mrs. Souvaine of Woman's Day, the A&P magazine. She said at first she was bored with material on Japan and Germany but as we talked, I mentioned a few things that caught her interest and she asked me to do an article based on the story you wrote of Eiko-san's mother-in-law's bursting into tears when she brought her first month's earnings home.

Henrietta

"Thence to HENRIETTA (MCCMASTER) for lunch where she and I tried to talk about the things that interested us in between Deeche's interminable anecdotes. Henrietta is on the home stretch of her novel, and hopes to finish it in a month or two.

"The Congressional (Railroad train) Wednesday PM

"At this point Henry Herz called to say Phil (HERZ) couldn't come last night because he had to do a rush job but that she could, if lone women were welcome. And further, she asked if she could bring Susan Anthony. Since I could not think of any way to duck the latter without betraying a more adverse sentiment than I actually feel for Susan, I said yes to both. Ursula had a fit when she came in a few moments later, though to her surprise and mine, Susan proved to be considerably tamed down and not a nuisance at all. Fact of the matter was, I was glad to see her and hear from her quite a lot about the C.A.W. (Congress of American Women).

"Hard on Ursula's heels, the guests began to arrive. The only ones who didn't come were Joe and Rae (JOSEPH LILTON BERNSTEIN and wife), Dan and Kathleen (LEVIN) and Phil, of course. Ben & Ethel (ALPER) had another engagement. It was a swell party with four or five animated conversations going on simultaneously. And I think something may come up out of it for Mike Greenburg, for both Henry Herz and Catherine ~~Earnshaw~~ were much taken by him. Catherine is a friend of Ursula's whom I've long been scheduled to meet; she's just leaving the N.Y. Industrial Union Council after five years.

~~NAIGLES~~
 "Mike and Miriam Naigles had to come in by train. . . I think they both had a thoroughly good time. They were delighted to see ~~Doxey (WILKERSON)~~ and meet Margaret ~~Schlauch~~, and Susan, who was one of Miriam's victories when Miriam was president of the NYA local, was very sweet to them both. Mike had met Jules ~~(KORCHIEN)~~ years ago and the two are having lunch Friday. And the ~~(MAYNARD)~~ Bertlers, who tried in vain to find the Naigles' house Sunday night, took them home last night so that this contact was made a little more solid. I had particularly wanted the Naigles to meet the Alpers, so was delighted when Miriam (~~NAIGLES~~) told me she had encountered Ethel (~~ALPER~~) in the obstetrician's office Monday and, conquering her shyness, had spoken to Ethel. The two gals had lunch together and have already made a date for lunch next time they go to their doctor. So there's another door opened.

"Everyone sent their love to you and wanted to know all your news. I felt very rich in affection last night—affection for us both. Henry Herz's warmth quite surprised me. ~~Doxey (WILKERSON)~~ said the paper (Peoples Voice) was in a very bad way and I had the impression that he might not continue in that assignment much longer. I didn't have a chance to ask him about the political controversy in which he is involved. Margaret, he and I chortled with joy over the teachers' strikes and the sudden militance of the AFL Teachers' Guild in New York.

"When I broke off writing last night I think I was about to tell you that Henrietta (~~HUCKLEMASTER~~) had told me yesterday that the ~~WIDF~~ (Women's International Democratic Federation) had been admitted to the U. N. as a special agency in category B. Ursula didn't think this was so much because the WIDF was asking for category A, like the YFTU and a number of women's organizations got category B, including AAUW, International Alliance, Business and Professional Women's club, etc. In view of the campaign against the WIDF conducted by the UD delegates, I think, with Susan, that the WIDF was fortunate in being admitted at all.

"From Henrietta's yesterday I went to see Mrs. Haggard with excellent results, as I've already indicated. I finished that interview at 3:30 and had the balance of the afternoon to kill. I considered going to the CAW (Congress of American Women) office where I'd probably have found Muriel (~~DRAIER~~) and from there to Thence to Gitel's. and from Gitel I got loans of material that will be invaluable to me in eliciting information in Japan. Jules (KORCHIEN) and Ursula (MASSELMAN) both were amazed that Gitel came through as she did - they say she's never been known to loan stuff, Gitel is actually doing her doctoral thesis at long last.

"I took a cab to Ethel and Ben (ALPER) new house, on a dead-end street off E 96th and just a block from the East River. . .

"Much love, sweetheart,
"Majay"

The identity of GITEL (female) mentioned in the above correspondence is not known to the Washington Field Division. It is to be noted that Confidential Informant [redacted] was advised that on July 2, 1946, URSULA MASSELMAN of New York City visited MARY JANL KEENEY in Washington. at that time URSULA contacted MERLE PHILLIPS WASH at the Office of International Information and Cultural Affairs. During the conversation WASH asked if URSULA had heard where GITEL was. URSULA replied that GITEL would be in New York the first of August, 1947. She continued that GITEL had asked her, URSULA, to write an article on the human races in South America.

He is a very good student but has the pure bourgeois attitude due to his background and bringing up. We can never do with him the little we have done with LOIS (CARLISLE) but his wife is susceptible to change. I could work on her as I am sure you will discover when you come out.

"MARSHALL says that the Far East is not on the Moscow agenda. I don't know what this augurs but I feel it is not too good. The European situation is loaded to the hilt due to a lack of common sense on the part of many. UPPHY and CLARK are not a pair to build up confidence in any foreign nation. They have botched up the negotiations at the start and will keep things in a stew so far as the USSR is concerned. . . I see ELEANOR R (ROOSEVELT) is backing up TRUMAN on the Palestine question. DAVE (MAHL) and Mrs. R must be getting chummy. This renewed interest seems to be giving BEVIN quite a dither and it will be interesting to see what comes out of it. HOOVER is working hard to build up Germany. It would seem as if this guy would be consigned to the B (British). LEWIS DOUGLAS will be a big help to progress when he gets to England. Our great land is certainly well stocked with reactionary buzzards. DULLES should be a fine first lieutenant to MARSHALL in Moscow, particularly after his recent blast against the USSR. It almost seems an insult to take such a person along on so important a trip provided we consider it important."

The next letter of interest written by ANGUS to MARY JANE was on March 4, 1947. In it he had the following to say: "I presume this letter will reach you about the time you are on your way to NYC. I wish we were doing it again together. We had such a choice time last November and our two days at the UNO were very exciting ones. URSULA (ASSERMAN) probably has learned all the ropes now and will make a fine escort along with BEN (ALPER) and DAN (LEVIN). I hope you see DOXEY (MILKERTON) for a moment and tell him how we feel.

"I shall be interested to see what the US papers say about our new Greek support, i.e. our British support. It seems as if we were getting in mighty deep and are about ready to pull the hole in after us. Our troubles may move in along with our dollars. There is said to be a vacuum wherever we or the British are not present in force and all vacuums attract the USSR, hence anglo-american policy can permit no vacuum. We refuse to admit that the Soviet Union is an enormous land mass bordering two oceans."

Under date of March 6, 1947, ANGUS wrote: "Have you seen 'Four Sections City', story of Berlin published there in 1946. It has many interesting illustrations and the commentary presents a very favorable picture. There is practically no baiting of any kind. It points out that conditions in Germany are generally progressing. The main emphasis is on the US sector."

Under date of March 3, 1947, ANGUS wrote: "President NA BAFa (head of the Japanese school) impresses me as a very real individual with the side in pomposity. NUGENT is a mighty small spud in comparison. I pointed out to some of our group the other day that were a JCP (Japanese Communist Party) elected governor of any prefecture it would be worth more than double its present member in the diet. Voices are lost in the diet but in the prefectures even a single voice might not be crying in the wilderness."

Under date of March 8, 1947, ANGUS wrote: "Today's paper is full of bile. I don't know what to say about the Supreme Court coal decision. It is not good for labor but it ought to put the quitus on J.L. I don't imagine he will head up any AFL-CIO reorganization."

MIKE AND MIRIAM NAIGLES

Informant [redacted] has also advised that MARY JANE KEENEY has received correspondence from MIKE and MIRIAM NAIGLES. Under date of February 25, 1947, MIRIAM NAIGLES, 48 Seneca Avenue, Tuckahoe 7, New York, wrote MARY JANE that she was excited at the prospect of having MARY JANE visit her soon. MIRIAM NAIGLES related that MIKE NAIGLES would call JOE (BERNSTEIN) and arrange for a gathering. MIRIAM continued that MIKE had a luncheon with DOATY (JILKERSON) and gave him (DOATY) ANGUS' letter.

Under date of March 15, 1947, MIKE H. NAIGLES wrote MARY JANE from his office, 250 5th Avenue, New York City. He wrote that he was interested in knowing if MARY JANE received her passport to Tokyo and asked that she advise him as soon as she heard anything. NAIGLES said: "We want to know about your passport and your car. Let us know just as soon as you have anything definite. With this resurgence of reaction in Washington I would trust not even the children's bureau."

Under date of March 13, 1947, HARRIET G. EDDY, 868 Creek Drive, Menlo Park, California, directed the following letter to LARY JANE: "Here I've gone and done it again! Written to Angus and did not remember to make a carbon for you! I always think of it, a bit too late. The most of the letter was comments on what he had written in the two letters that were here when Myrt and I got back from a month in Southern California. One of the letters was about the dismissal of the prefectural librarian, and naturally A. was pretty hot over it. The best I could say was that he will have to expect anything for there is no end to the blocking things that he will have to meet.

"But things will be better for him when you get there. Is that to be soon? I hope so. He said you might go via Seattle and take your car, - at least he was urging you to do it. Does that mean you would not come this way? That would be too bad. Can't you come here, too?

"The letters from Mr Athanasov are most interesting. I told him that I am the one getting the most out of the plan. I asked him for material about Bulgaria, and he has sent wonderful things, including pictures of partisans and people that are choice. He said he would ask the govt. to invite me there. That would be nice and there is a chance it might work out, but I have also another, or rather an additional idea. I can't go into detail now, but I need to know from you if he is as 100% "progressive" as I hope and think. Judging from his letters, he is. Can you reassure me on this point? I'll hope to explain it to you before you leave Washington.

"Lovely summer weather. Hope you get this kind when You drive west. Let us know soon what your plans and dates are.

"Love from us both,

"We cannot tell you how much your letter touched us. We thank you for your kind wishes and we take this opportunity to express to you our very sincere wishes. Your too brief stay in Paris is a nice memory for us and we will certainly be happy when we see you again. We had a little card from Mrs. ~~HARALSON~~ (HARALDSON) who was a pleasant client (customer), thanks to you, Madame. Informant ~~has~~ advised that under date of February 26, 1947, PHILIP OLIN KEELEY and MARY JANE had the amount of $1004.61 deposited in the Linsey Trust Company Bank, Washington, D.C. Checks issued by MARY JANE during the months of January and February, 1947, reflect no checks of any unusual interest. It was noted, however, that MARY JANE purchased four shares of stock in the General Homes Incorporated and made a payment to NATHAN ~~WYER~~ in the amount of $1200 for this stock. b2 b7D

The New Haven Field Division advised by letter, dated March 4, 1947, that MARY JANE KEELEY visited RICHARD and RUTH L.C. KINNEY BRANSTEN on March 3 and 4, 1947. On the morning of March 4, 1947, RUTH BRANSTEN contacted an individual determined to be EDITH MACGARD, agent for the Curtis Brown Publishing Company and asked that Mrs. MACGARD grant MARY JANE an interview. Concerning MARY JANE, RUTH had the following to say: "She has had a very interesting career in the State Department with one thing or another; had been in Germany with the occupation forces, mainly with reparations. Now she is going to Japan to join her husband who has quite a big job with SCAP out there. She has a sort of commitment to write for Harpers and they are giving her credentials. She knows Don Fisher (phonetic) up there, and they sort of ordered three articles from her, but she isn't certain about it and would like to write for some other magazines too. She is going to be in a very interesting spot and will probably be able to travel almost continuously up and down the islands. So we told her that she needs a good agent--that being you--and she is in New York City today checking on travel arrangements. I think she is leaving from San Francisco in a couple of weeks, so she will probably telephone you sometime today to see if you have a moment so she can drop in.

"I think she will be a very good customer because she writes well, is an interesting 'dame' and is going to be in a very interesting spot; much more so than most correspondents get in. Oddly enough, her husband is re-organizing all the Japanese libraries, so he is bouncing around Japan rushing into small towns and fixing up their libraries, etc. He already speaks Japanese and she is going to learn it--so she will probably be in a very interesting way, and get to do things that most correspondents won't. So she might have some interesting material. Then too she may do some reparations work. That is what she did in Germany. If she does that she would be in a position to get some very interesting material there too. Anyway she will tell you all that. So what I thought was that she needed you so that she would write things to you from Japan. So she will probably phone you for an appointment before long--I know you will want to see her.

"One reason she hasn't been writing for the past few years is that she has been writing for the government and they don't let them write for outside publication. Now that she is free to be able to write, she ought to have quite a bit of stuff on tap. However, you can investigate all that. I think it is a favor to you rather than a favor for us for a change."

The report of Special Agent JOHN J. DANAHY, dated February 21, 1947, at New York City, entitled JOSEPH MILTON BERNSTEIN, with aliases, Bureau file 65-56402, reflects that certain correspondence from PHILIP CLIN KELLEY directed to JOSEPH M. BERNSTEIN had been secured from a confidential source. These letters are of interest and are being set forth as follows:

On June 9, 1946, PHILIP C. KELLEY wrote to BERNSTEIN from Tokyo, Japan, as follows:

"Dear Joe,

"I hope you have begun your new work on your own. It may not bring in as many shekels at first as some of your former jobs, but I am sure it is going to be far more pleasant and satisfactory in the long run. More power to you. As you say the Bernstein family has weathered a very difficult year, but the fact that they made it is important.

"M.J. came back from Europe with high hopes only to see some of them gone glimmering. This has sapped a little of her usual vigor and filled her with a certain trepidation. Conditions are generally less propitious than a year ago. We were in a better position to make the most of victory, then, but we seem to have retreated due to our faith in the A-bomb and our fear of an ally. Our path has become many paths leading in a variety of directions and our statesmen follow all willy nilly. The general situation out here is confused. The Roxas election is a fair indication of the way the wind blows. The fact that Chiang intends to attend the July 4th celebration is no elegant augury for the future. Truman's appointment of Vinson and elevation of Snyder presage no advance on the home front. This morning I was told by one of my confreres that it was too bad Owen Roberts was not called back from retirement to be the new Chief Justice, -Roberts had been a great liberal according to my informant.

"I have a hunch that circumstances will prevent J's trip to Tokyo. She can accept the radio venture which offers much in the way of opportunity. There is a great chance to accomplish something positive and I am all for her going ahead with it. If I really wanted to stay here, I might feel quite differently, I have done very little and it looks as if the going would be slow and tedious. I am not necessarily fed up and discouraged, but the army sits and prevents any movement. There are going to be some library meetings later this month and something may eventuate. I shall probably know by then what M J is going to do.

"I have just returned from hearing the Tokyo Symphony under Rosenstock's baton render the 9th Symphony with a 300 voice chorus. It was an excellent performance but to me highly ironic. What have the Japanese got to sing a hymn of joy over? This question is not rank pessimism but fact. To be sure they are not being killed off in a futile war, but democracy in any form is far below any horizon. The few who understand the secret (precious few) are slapped down on all occasions. It just doesn't add up. We know the races of man will continue to people this planet regardless of man's inhumanity to man, but the bitter out tastes the sweet in 1946.

"My love to you and yours and all must keep physically fit.

On July 5, 1946, PHILIP O. KELLEY wrote to BEANSTEIN from Tokyo, Japan, as follows:

"Dear Joe,

"I had a letter from M J today including your latest to her. Both letters depict two free lances ready to tilt against the grants. I am certain you twain will do better than ordinarily well in your new undertakings. M J has a couple of months to learn the rudiments of her new game and I am sure she will learn the basic rules and be ready when the station opens. You have the necessary training and experience for your work. Being on your own gives you the sense of freedom which is valuable in any creative activity. More power to you.

"M J's story of the Japanese episode is no more fantastic than that of her last interviews in the S D when she finally broke away from federal employment. She was in a position to tell them off and I am sure she did same with gusto but without malice. Others are in a less fortunate position and are compelled to slip into a slot that means nothing to them. My present employment papers seem to indicate that I have permanent C S status. M J is checking to learn the score. I have no wish to stick with the gov't. on my return, but an anchor of this kind may be helpful until I find the proper spot where I can accomplish something positive. With M J out of the gov't., it will be easier for me to follow the path that has real meaning for me.

"Conditions are so unsettled in the States at this moment that it may be wiser to stick here a while. This would not be difficult or onerous, were I allowed to follow up what I have begun. I should know more about this before too long. If I find all doors locked, there will be nothing to do but pull my freight as gracefully as possible.

"We have some 60 or more foreign nationals living in our hotel. It is now rumored that they are moving out. Our life has had a modicum of cosmopolitanism about it, but, if we lose this group, the conversation will become even more blatant and bellicose.

"Reports say that Andrew S (or G) has been doing some very effective work. He has been working lately on local government, i.e., laws to give it real autonomy. Art B has been a bit disappointing in some ways, but he has been trying hard to expose the wiles of the old line Japanese bureaucrats who are clinging to power like leeches. Art may stay on here as long as possible, for he has nothing definite to return to in the States.

"Some people who have returned to the U S are now very anxious to come back here. If the H C L zooms upward, others will be glad to hunt other jobs out of the country. It looks from this distance as if the Republicans would win this next Congress. If this happens, 1948 prospects look dismal. CIO - PaC and NC - PaC have a big job on their hands. Elections are expensive and I do not suppose either PaC is filthy with shekels. Their money cannot be spread too thinly, if it is to have any effect in November.

"We are in the midst of our rainy season. It has rained off and on the past 5 days and it is muggy but not fearfully hot. This ought to be good for crops and the Japanese need a big harvest to feed 73,000,000 souls.

"I am glad Rae is having a change. Though you are going to miss your growing family, this break may give you more leisure to settle down to your new tasks. Give them all my love and I hope to see them all before the kiddies are grown up.

"You know, Joe, you are one of our favorite souls. You blew into our midst when both Ks could perform certain duties without reservations. Your visits were always welcomed. You added to the gaiety of nations which is necessary in a world at war. You gave me a chance to splash my spleen and rid myself of various and sundry rages. You were a fine antidote and J & I respected your points of view. Our disagreements were only of degree never of kind, hence our association was mutually beneficial, n'est-ce-pas.

The following letter was received by BERNSTEIN from PHILIP O. KEENEY and was dated August 18, 1946:

"Dear Joe:

"I have just pulled off the most successful conference of librarians in the history of Japanese librarydom, or so I am told. The fact of the matter is that I am into Japanese library affairs so deeply that to pull out now would leave them high and dry. On top of that I have just been promoted, the first in 3 years, and now, I have considerable more prestige with my colleagues and am in a position to order a Sedan when I want to go to meetings instead of a jeep. Finally, I am going off tomorrow for a full week's vacation in the Japanese mountains where I can mul over the entire situation, viz., whether this library business is worth another couple of years of partial separation from my beloved wife. I can go home in October or November for a 45 day leave, i.e., I will be home 45 days, -travel time does not count. If I return, I must sign up for a year, but there is the outside chance that I might fly to Japan next summer for her vacation. A lot of chickens are not hatched, yet. The main question is, how valuable is my work in Japan in comparison to other things I could do at home? If the occupation were to last at least a decade or more, I would not hesitate, because I have the librarians literally eating out of my hand and in a few years libraries in Japan could become a thoroughly democratic tool. If we are only here for the ride, two or three years, what I am doing now is a big laugh. I am of the secret opinion that in a few years' time I could weave into the fabric of Japanese life the importance of the J C P, but this is going to be a slow and arduous task. Give me another American supporter like myself, it could be done. I have picked the man and he might be available in 1947. From this brief recapitulation you can see the size and scope of my dilemma. Until this conference I had no idea of my influence. We practice democracy in our hotel by not allowing Japanese to dine in the main diningroom, but we can have guests (Japanese provided it is official business) in private diningrooms. So, say I to myself says I, there are going to be 15 important librarians at this conference from every part of Japan, a few Tokyo librarians and three Japanese gov't. officials, why not throw a dinner for them at my hotel, the largest in town. I did same and it was a huge success. I even furnished Japanese beer, American cigars and cigarettes. They were knocked out by my liberality which cost me less than .25. Remember the Keeney cocktail party. The Japanese have been making all kinds of 'presentos' to American officials, but to be given an American 'presento' was quite different. My praises were sung high, wide and handsome. The librarians present will follow me through mud, filth and corruption, now, and spread the word of my interest in their problems. You see, I am a very smart guy, but, in the final analysis, what does it add up to. The world is in a most precarious state. The lid is in a position to blow off at any time. I am safe in Japan playing around with librarians who are just as conservative, at heart, as in the U.S. It has taken me 8 months of lonely work to get them on the move. What to do now is of vital importance to me as you can well understand.

I felt that my Japanese venture was a kind of escape, though my and your friends said it was not. I can't show much after eight months in actual accomplishment. To continue hammering on this anvil is the question.

"The K's are in a better financial position than at any time in our lives. We are not floating in money, but we could survive for a couple or three years on our surplus baggage. I want to do the most necessary things to do, and I know M.J. feels the same way. She does not want me to leave Japan while I can make hay in the Japanese library world, but is it important? I say, yes, if even the occupation remains 10 years and, emphatically no, if we quit Japan in less than 10 years. What do you advise?"

"Much love to you all.

S/ "Angus"

"P.S. You had better get M.J. to NYC to discuss my problem with you or hire yourself to Washington to talk with her. I am not saying that I am accepting the dictum of your concerted talk, but I am open to all advice. I need some one to kick a little sense into me. I may get a magnified idea of my value to Japan and refuse to come home in November because when I am gone two months, no one will carry on my library work. These librarians are trying to make me an important factor in their lives. I don't want to fool myself by what I do."

The following letter received by BERNSTEIN from PHILIP O. KLENEY is dated September 7, 1946:

"Dear Joe:

"You have probably seen J since you wrote to me. If so, she was sure to tell you my present crop of plans. I appreciated your advice, had it come a few months ago, I am afraid I would have tossed it aside as pretty poor fodder. At times, it seems as I was getting nowhere over here, then, comes a minor deluge which brings up a bunch of seedlings. I realize more and more that Japanese librarians have come to depend on me to the nth degree. To pull out now would leave them without an anchor. I spoke before a small group of librarians last night and was quite touched by the blurbs heaped upon me. But it is all very pathetic, because they have so little initiative. They lean on me and as I tell M.J. I am no Atlas to hold up Japanese librarydom. There were two or three other Americans present last night and one turned to me and wanted to know what I had done to the Japanese. I don't pull punches when talking to them, but I strike out with a smile and a joke whenever possible. I seem to have won considerable confidence from them. I have plenty of nerve and will beard even the old boy himself in his den, if there is a chance to plug libraries. It is largely a question of iteration and reiteration in trying to put your ideas over. It means one must be long on patience and sympathy realizing that the librarians have always accepted orders from on high and have never had the nerve to thump their nose at any government official. It is obvious that nothing lasting can be accomplished in a year or two. I might have enough of a crop growing after one more year to leave in other hands to mature. When I mention not returning to even government officials, they gasp.

"The whole world seems to shake from side to side daily. The news of the past week has been atrabilious. How long these bellicose mouthings can go on without becoming more than war-monger's talk is beyond my comprehension. I am waiting to see what Byrnes had to say at Stuttgart. Vandenberg and Connolly can help him a great deal, eh what. The talk around these diggings is wild and wooly. One might expect a bomb to be dropped tomorrow. We seem to be carrying them on our aircraft carriers in foreign waters. Bah, it is all too absurd for words.

"I am glad that Rae and the children had such a good summer. David seems to have his share of the ills of children, but once he has run the gamut there is no reason why he shouldn't be hale and hearty.

"I see that the ineffable Lundeberg has pulled one. This about what you would expect from persons of his ilk. I thought Bill Green just a few days ago asked his unions to stay on the job. If Truman tries to sail the ships, he will have a sizable job on his hands. It does not seem as this strike would last long, but no one can predict the various ramifications.

"I have some 90 days annual leave accrued, and I had planned to take 45 of them on this trip home. However, I do not know whether I can afford to be away that long provided I return. I may settle for 30 days in Washington.

"Love to you all. I am sure that MJ must be in touch with you again. The fact that she may not take up her new job until December makes me most anxious to get back earlier than planned.

"I heard over the morning's office radio that the USSR is having an internal upheaval. How much one can believe such stories is hard to tell. We know there have been some purges, but these stories have been most incomplete. The Soviet citizenry must be very tired and the prospect of another struggle must be very debilitating. The necessity for large armies must be a very great drain on the people. Klotov spoke for all nations when he said the USSR did not have enough diplomats to cover two world conferences."

From a highly confidential source known to Special Agents J. J. DANAHY, J. H. DOYLE and J. T. HILSBOS of the New York Field Division a scrap of paper was obtained containing a short note without a date and signed by MARY JANE which is set forth as follows:

"Dear Joe and Rae:

"The enclosed gives the denouement of the Japan bubble and a most trying eight weeks. Except for Angus' disappointment, however, I'm as well pleased. The job I'd have done is a pretty mechanical one and MacArthur's headquarters not a place where one can accomplish much.

"Do let me know what you are doing. Is Rae going to Chicago?

"Best wishes and love,

"P.S. Would you send the carbon to Ursula at 110 Christopher St.? She ought to be back most any day now."

As indicated by the first paragraph, the above note was probably written in the late spring or early summer of 1946 since it would indicate that it was written shortly after MARY JANE KELNEY discovered that as a working wife she would be unable to be assigned to the same overseas theater as her husband, PHILIP OLIN KELNEY.

The URSULA referred to in the postscript is undoubtedly URSULA WASSERMAN, 110 Christopher Street, New York City, concerning whom the Bureau has compiled considerable information.

The highly confidential source mentioned above could provide no indication as to what the enclosure sent by MARY JANE to JOSEPH BERNSTEIN with the above contained.

This same source also provided a mimeographed Christmas card sent out by PHILIP OLIN and MARY JANE KEENEY to all of their friends. The complete text of this Christmas card, which is entitled "KEENEY CHRISTMAS LAP SERIES" is not being set forth in detail since it consists of three typewritten pages in general setting forth the travel and the nature of the work of PHILIP OLIN KEENEY and MARY JANE KEENEY during the past calendar year. However, a postscript written on the back of the card is being set forth in detail as follows:

"Dear B's,

"I am sorry not to have seen all of you when we visited NYC. We hope it will be different next time.

"Mike N told us how much his contact with you means, Joe. I am sure you will do him much good. Mike has a fine mind, but he needs direction which you can give him.

"I have had a wonderful time with my beloved family. The leave has finished all too quickly. However, I am hoping M.J. will join me in a few months. It is asking too much to keep us apart two years. I am sure she will find something worth doing when she reaches Japan. I am sure she will see you before she leaves.

"I hope, Joe, that your new venture progresses and brings you satisfactions which you so richly deserve.

"Much love to you all from us both.

At this time MARY JANE was joined by BEATRICE SCHWARTZ. They then drove to the vicinity of the Admiral Club, 15th and Rhode Island Avenue, which they entered at 7:50 p.m. MARY JANE and BEATRICE were observed to leave the Admiral Club at 8:25 p.m. and to drive to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. BOYAN ATHANASSOV, 3716 Woodley Road, N.W. Mr. and Mrs. ATHANASSOV were observed to leave their residence and enter MARY JANE's car. The four then proceeded to the residence of MORDECAI and LUCILLE EZEKIEL, 5000 Allandale Road, Greenacres, Maryland, arriving at 8:55 p.m.

At the time MARY JANE arrived two cars were observed parked in the yard of the EZEKIEL residence. One car, bearing 1946 D.C. license 68-639, is registered to MORRIS ROLAN, 1736 Holly Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. The other automobile bore 1946 New York license 7U5488.

At 8:58 p.m. HAROLD CLASSLA and his wife were observed to drive up in their 1942 Plymouth, bearing 1946 D.C. license 122-021. ALLAN ROSENBERG and his wife were observed to arrive at 9:00 p.m. in their automobile bearing 1946 Maryland tags 302-279. The next contact of interest was between ALIX REUTHER and MARY JANE. At this time ALIX informed MARY JANE that she had received word she would not be eligible for the position with the German-American newspaper in Munich. ALIX related that General CLAY had issued a directive to the effect that the American Military Government overseas should not secure the services of anyone who was born in Germany and who had not been an American citizen since 1933. MARY JANE agreed that that was a terrible situation. ALIX commented it was sickening and that it was politically so horribly stupid and that the people they secured for these positions would either be very old or the type of people they desired (meaning anti-Communists).

ALIX continued with her tale of woe to MARY JANE and said that she, ALIX, had made up her mind that she would have to resign her position with the War Department. Her nerves have become shattered and she has secured a persecution complex. MARY JANE was very much relieved to learn that she did not have to wait for the issuance of her passport and she immediately suggested that she go up to the Pentagon Building and make arrangements to have her baggage picked up and arrange a sailing date if possible.

The next contact of interest was between HELEN JAMB and MARY JANE, at which time HELEN said she desired to give MARY JANE a coffee grinder and would leave it with P. BERNARD NORTMAN. MARY JANE suggested that HELEN leave it at the Washington Cooperative Bookshop, which was agreeable.

CARL GREEN next had contact with MARY JANE, at which time they discussed MARY JANE's moving and her prospective trip to Japan.

On March 27, 1947, Colonel DIEGEL, Transportation Officer, Military District of Washington, contacted MARY JANE and informed her that the War Department would not be able to move any household goods prior to a port call. In effect this meant that MARY JANE would not be able to have her furniture picked up by the Baggage Control Division of the Army nor move to Seattle until MARY JANE actually received a sailing date from the port. MARY JANE was very much upset over this news and the Colonel explained that there is a tremendous backlog of shipping and that numerous ships had broken down in the past few weeks. MARY JANE poured out her tale of woe, giving up her apartment and the other arrangements she had made in regard to her departure. The Colonel suggested that MARY JANE secure an extension on her apartment lease and promised to expedite MARY JANE's port call if possible.

CARL GREEN then conversed with MARY JANE and she informed him of her recent difficulty regarding the movement of her household effects. GREEN then informed MARY JANE that a very funny incident had come up and explained that he is doing a show over radio station WQQW regarding Easter Week. Continuing, he said that he was having a character from the Hecht Company dressed as Br'er Rabbit and he was having 26 crippled children as guests of radio station WQQW. The station decided that it wanted some publicity and V. LANG who handles the publicity thought of the idea of securing some prominent individual to sell Easter Seals. It was decided they would attempt to secure the daughter of

Secretary of Agriculture ANDERSON who would be the Cherry Blossom Queen.

GREEN related that Miss ANDERSON was found to be ill and, therefore, LANG secured the daughter of Attorney General TO. CLARK. This amused MARY JANE very much. GREEN continued that when he looked over this selection he "hit the ceiling" but that the more he considered it, the funnier it seemed. In this regard CARL said, "Of all the people I can't take, it is TO. CLARK and who do I end up with but having a picture with his daughter." GREEN then related that JOE had sold advertising space to the Chesterfield Cigarette Company and had secured singing commercials.

MARY JANE then contacted Mrs. STANTON and related her trouble with the Baggage Control Division of the Army and asked for an extension on her apartment. Mrs. STANTON was sympathetic and agreed.

The next contact of interest was between MARY JANE and LOIS CARLISLE, at which time MARY JANE asked if LOIS had any whiskey. LOIS replied in the affirmative and MARY JANE requested that she bring some up to her apartment as she needed it.

MARY JANE then contacted SARAH and informed her that she would not be able to send the articles of furniture that SARAH was purchasing from MARY JANE because of difficulties in the shipping of her other household effects to Seattle, Washington.

MARY JANE informed MARY TODD of her shipping difficulties also.

The next contact of interest was between MARY JANE KEENEY and Mrs. SARAH LECF at Pasco, Guediro, Mexico. MARY JANE addressed this individual as LICK (phonetic) and informed her that she, MARY JANE, had been unable to ship MARTY, her dog, to Mexico because of the weather. MARY JANE related she would ship MARTY on the next available flight.

MARY JANE then canceled her dinner engagement with LUCY CONKLIN for March 28, 1947, in view of her difficulties in shipping MARTY to Mexico.

MARY JANE also had contact with ALIX REUTHER on March 27, 1947, and informed her of the latest developments regarding her baggage difficulties. They discussed a broadcast over the Town Meeting of the Air in which RALPH INGERSOL was one of the speakers. ALIX said that INGERSOL was "the only light shining in that broadcast".

Informant [redacted] advised that on March 28, 1947, MARY JANE was contacted by Mrs. BOYAN ATHANASSOV. MARY JANE talked at great length concerning her difficulties with the War Department. Mrs. ATHANASSOV remarked that her husband, BOYAN ATHANASSOV, had to go to New York because of WARREN AUSTIN's speech on March 28th. Continuing, Mrs. ATHANASSOV said, "They notified us and everybody else that somebody had to be there". WARREN AUSTIN

The conversation then turned to the party that DAVID WAHL was giving in honor of MARY JANE and MARY JANE learned that WAHL had asked the VLADIMIR HOUDER of the Czechoslovakian Embassy. Mrs. ATHANASSOV said that DR. TROJSEVIC had been inquiring about MARY JANE.

VLADIMIR HOUDER

MARY JANE then contacted DAVID WAHL and informed him of the latest hitch in her plans to leave Washington for Seattle, Washington. She went into detail regarding the explanation given her by Colonel DIEGEL in regard to the change of policy regarding the transportation of household effects prior to the receipt of a port call. MARY JANE said that the secretary of Congressman LYNDON JOHNSON of Texas is to obtain the apartment of MARY JANE when she vacates it. Therefore, MARY JANE thought that if some political pressure were applied, it might help her with regard to Colonel DIEGEL. DAVE replied he thought that that might be a good idea but he believed MARY JANE should be careful about using political pressure. MARY JANE agreed and said she wanted to check with DAVE first. MARY JANE asked if DAVE believed she should recontact Colonel DIEGEL and DAVE suggested that she give him sufficient time to see if he could secure an earlier port call for her.

MARY JANE also had contact with DOROTHY TODD on March 28th, informing her of her shipping difficulties.

HARRIET SIMONS had contact with MARY JANE on the same day and MARY JANE related to her the latest news regarding her difficulties.

On March 29, 1947, [REDACTED] advised that MARY JANE conversed with ERIC BEECROFT. At this time she related what had happened to her in regard to the transportation of her household effects. She also said that the secretary of Congressman LYNDON JOHNSON was to contact the Army and see if he could expedite matters. BEECROFT then asked MARY JANE what about her own Congressman. MARY JANE said that LIKE (apparently a Congressman) might not do it. ERIC commented that he had written part of a speech for LIKE who had been very well received by the Committee.

CARL GREEN had contact with MARY JANE on March 29th, saying that he awoke at 2:00 A. M. that morning and that MARY JANE was on his mind. Therefore, he decided to go over to MARY JANE's and get drunk with her. MARY JANE said that she didn't believe that would help her in her dilemma. MARY JANE then went into an explanation as to how she sent her dog to Mexico City to be with the LEOFS. GREEN apparently is acquainted with them and was interested in the news concerning them.

WFO 100-17493

GREEN commented that he had filed a suit against the Government because he was terminated from Government service incorrectly on a reduction in force when he actually had a veteran's preference. ALAN ROSENBERG is his attorney.

HARRIET SIMONS contacted MARY JANE on the same date and arrangements were made that MARY JANE would have dinner with ALIX REUTHER and they would then pick up HARRIET on their way to DAVID TAIL's.

The next contact of interest was between MARY JANE and MRS. BOYAN ATHANASSOV, at which time MARY JANE agreed to stop by her home for Mrs. ATHANASSOV at 3:45 P. M. enroute to DAVID TAIL's. Mrs. ATHANASSOV said her husband was still in New York and she had not heard from him.

MARCUS GOLDMAN next had contact with MARY JANE and they discussed the Washington Cooperative Bookshop. GOLDMAN said that the bookshop desired to get a statement out to their members. JOE PIERCE (phonetic) prepared the statement which says that the Bookshop "exists in order to create unity between negro and white which is certainly a considerable distortion. It's all wrong. The Bookshop was created to fight, that is, create an understanding of the danger of Fascism". MARY JANE agreed with him and MARCUS suggested that she rewrite this statement. MARY JANE said that she was not in the correct frame of mind to do that at that time. MARCUS commented, "Well, these are disturbing times", to which MARY JANE agreed.

The next contact of interest was between MARY JANE and Mr. SEAGLE (phonetic), Apartment 305 of the Congressional Apartments, 215 B Street, N. E. At this time MARY JANE suggested that Mr. SEAGLE contact the War Department and attempt to put some political pressure to have MARY JANE's port call expedited. SEAGLE agreed to do it soon.

On March 30, 1947, MARY JANE contacted LILLIAN DUNAWAY and said she, MARY JANE, was in a state of panic because everything was so mixed up. LILLIAN then invited MARY JANE to her home that day, which was accepted. LILLIAN suggested that MARY JANE call CARL GREEN as she was also going out to their home.

MARY JANE then contacted ROSE ANDERSON, inquiring if ROGER and REBA LEWIS were in town. She was informed that they would not be in Washington until the next weekend.

DAN LEVIN of New York City next contacted MARY JANE to wish her good luck on her trip. MARY JANE informed him of her difficulties and requested he relay the information to URSULA WASSERMAN. DAN commented that URSULA was concerned and a little bit worried that MARY JANE might not get out of the country easily.

DAN said that if MARY JANE were stopping in the Hawaiian Islands, he desired that she contact JACK KIOTO in Honolulu. KIOTO is a Japanese formerly employed with the Office of War Information. LEVIN said that KIOTO's address could be secured from the University. Continuing, LEVIN said that KIOTO and he studied Chinese together at the University and that KIOTO should have some good contacts in Japan which would be of interest to MARY JANE. MARY JANE thanked him for his interest but said she did not believe she would stop over in Hawaii.

DOROTHY TODD next contacted MARY JANE, at which time they discussed the party that DAVID WAHL had given in honor of MARY JANE the night before. DOROTHY said, "I had seen our host before last night, of course, but I had never known who he was." (This apparently is in reference to DAVID WAHL.)

The next contact of interest was between CARL GREEN and MARY JANE. KEENEY who introduced himself by saying, "I want the Navy; I want the War Department; I want the Justice Department; it's CARL GREEN." MARY JANE agreed to pick up CARL enroute to DUNAWAYS that afternoon.

LILLIAN DUNAWAY

On March 31, 1947, MARY JANE had contact with Colonel DIEGEL at the War Department who informed her he had no news in regard to her port call. He informed MARY JANE that it would be some time before she would receive a port call, that it would be some time before her household effects could be picked up.

The next contact of interest was between MARY JANE and ALIX REUTHER, at which time MARY JANE brought her up to date on the latest developments of her difficulties with the War Department and ALIX invited MARY JANE to stay with her if she had to give up her apartment. MARY JANE refused to inconvenience ALIX.

MARY JANE also had contact with DAVID WAHL on March 31st, informing him of the bad news she had received from Colonel DIEGEL. It was decided that MARY JANE would take her car to the home of DAVID WAHL and leave it there in view of the expiration of the license plates on March 31st.

MARY JANE also had contact with HARRIET SLOOS on March 31st, at which time they discussed the speech of HENRY WALLACE over radio station WJAL at 10:15 that evening. MARY JANE said it was a wonderful address and that WALLACE's voice was excellent. She related that the "P.M." newspaper would probably be the only one that would carry the text of the speech. HARRIET said that a friend of hers (HARRIET) worked on the speech and advised her there would be a rally before the speech.

~~SHIRLEY WEINERMAN~~

On April 6, 1947, MARY JANE KEESEY was observed in the company of a woman who operated an Oldsmobile with 1946 Connecticut license 8/V 304. By letter dated March 31, 1947, the New Haven Division advised the following concerning the ownership of the car bearing this license:

"Connecticut license 8/V 304 (1946) was issued to E. RICHARD WEINERMAN, 50 Canterbury Street, Hartford, Connecticut. The registration card reflects that this automobile is a 1946 Oldsmobile Sedan, color green, Motor No. 6-28-124. This car was registered on September 11, 1946. No description of WEINERMAN was available at the Connecticut State Motor Vehicle Department. However, according to his registration, he is a doctor and his wife's name is SHIRLEY. There likewise appears a notation on the registration, 'removed to Washington, D. C.'

"A check of the New Haven Office files reflects the following information concerning E. RICHARD WEINERMAN, who is believed to be identical with the above person. In the February 16, 1946 issue of the newspaper, Hartford Times, there appeared a letter to the editor which was signed by 'E. RICHARD WEINERMAN, M.D.' For the information of the Washington Field Division this letter is being quoted verbatim:

"To the Editor of The Times:

"In the Wagner-Murray-Dingall Bill, the high costs of medical care could be met if everyone prepaid a small amount into a fund that would bring complete medical services to the unlucky few that get sick each year. Thus the risk is spread and the cost is shared -- and no one goes without full medical attention because of its sudden and staggering demands on the family pocketbook.

"Such a typically American insurance plan is not socialized medicine. No doctor works for the government. No doctor or hospital joins the plan except on

"on a voluntary basis. The people are guaranteed free choice of physicians in the plan, and can always go privately to doctors who have abstained.

"The patient prepays for his own care, and the doctors are reimbursed according to schedules that they work out themselves in each area. Full medical, hospital, laboratory and necessary dental and nursing care is assured to all who need it.

"Other provisions of the bill call for extensive expansion of hospital projects and public health agencies -- especially in the rural and backwoods area that need them most.

"Does anyone consider socialistic the principle of universally supported public schools? Or the fact that everyone finances the Fire Department so that when my house catches on fire I don't have personally to bear the cost of a visit from the hook-and-ladder specialists?

"The same people that fought the whole idea of hospitalization insurance a few years ago are now attempting to delay the start of national health insurance by claiming that voluntary plans will meet the need. But the voluntary schemes now reach only 4 per cent of the population, they cover only emergency surgical and maternity work in many cases, they tend to fill up with the physically 'poor risk' patients, and their relatively small membership necessitates individual fees that are prohibitive for the low-income groups that need protection the most.

"It is obviously democratic for the coverage to be universal and compulsory--like wartime military service--so that the healthy outweigh the ailing, the rich balance the poor, and there is no needless duplication of hundreds of separate voluntary plans.

"Health--as well as education--can become the universally supported right of every citizen. Our people need better health protection. The doctors anticipate freedom from financial limitations, widened scientific horizons, and guaranteed income.

RE: [DUNCAN CHAPLIN LEE]

The following investigative information is being reported by Special Agent W. RAYMOND WANNALL for the period March 16-31, 1947:

*Confidential Informant [redacted] made the following information available: On March 16, 1947, DUNCAN LEE was in contact with DAVE SHAW, who has been previously mentioned in this case. DUNCAN told DAVE that he was supposed to give a course on New York Practice at Catholic University Law School starting in a week's time, and that it was driving him crazy. DUNCAN said the only qualification he had was that he was a member of the New York Bar and had passed the bar examination on the second try. DAVE commented that he had heard RILEY, who was teaching at Catholic University also. DUNCAN said he had been reading about RILEY in the New York Times that day. It was about BROWN's (the head of the Machinists) pretext to TAFT. He said RILEY's statements before the Committee last Saturday were with the views of the National Association of Manufacturers and therefore qualified him to be an unofficial member of the Committee. DAVE asked if DUNCAN had seen that thing of his he had given DUNCAN. DUNCAN replied that he hadn't read it and that he mislaid it, possibly in the office. He said he was sure it hadn't fallen into any hands that might embarrass DAVE. DAVE said he wasn't worried about that now as it has been used as a basis for Senator (WAYNE) MORRIS' speech last week. DAVE then asked DUNCAN if the latter had heard HOWARD SMITH's broadcast from Moscow that same day, March 16. DAVE said that the speech was so good he didn't think SMITH would ever be allowed to go on again. DAVE had just heard the broadcast over the radio and it was amazing. He said that SMITH was talking about the Greek thing and about our general action in Moscow, and had commented that the thing that was so obvious over all Moscow is that Secretary MARSHALL is not running the delegation but that the delegation is being sponsored and run and directed entirely by one Mr. DULLES (phonetic) (possibly JOHN FOSTER DULLES, the Republican representative on the delegation to Moscow.) and MARSHALL is sitting there unable to do anything. DAVE said he thought it was quite interesting, this comment, for it was the first time anybody had ever said that. He said that HOWARD SMITH also told about some of the snatch conversations going on among the American delegates, such as, "We have the Russians on the run" and "we are going to keep them on the run, that is clear till they get back to the Urals." DAVE commented further that he thought this Greek thing is really causing a lot of problems; however, DUNCAN said he could not agree with that statement.

On March 20, 1947, PRISCILLA LEE, the sister of DUNCAN LEE, advised the Credit Bureau of Washington that she had been living at her present address since December, 1945. She said further that she is presently working for the "National Committee on Segregation in the Nation's Capital" which had its office at Douglas Hall, Howard University. Her supervisor was said to be Mr. SHANNON.

She stated that he operated a farm at New Market and was considered to be an average type farm operator. She knew nothing concerning his outside activities but felt that he spent most of his time at the farm. She knew nothing concerning him which might indicate that he was engaging in any un-American activities. As far as she knew SUMMERS never had any visitors at his farm with the exception of the natives at New Market."

Confidential Informant [REDACTED] revealed that on January 13, 1947, ~~DAVID WEINTRAUB~~, Director, Division of Economic Stability and Development, Department of Economic Affairs, United Nations, Lake Success, New York, advised Dr. ~~LUDWIG RAJCHMAN~~, 2300 Decatur Place, N. W., Washington, D. C., that Mr. LISCHINSKY was the man who was to go on the original technical mission to Poland but whom the Polish Government rejected because of a confusion of identities with a Congressman from Michigan. ~~WEINTRAUB~~ stated that LISCHINSKY was a good man and he was sure he could be of great help to the Children's Fund. Informant [REDACTED] further indicated that WEINTRAUB submitted to RAJCHMAN the following information which WEINTRAUB originally had transmitted to Mr. ~~LAURIE PATE~~, Executive Director, International Children's Emergency Fund, 1712 N Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., on January 13, 1947. WEINTRAUB told PATE that, although he did not know what his (PATE's) plans were for staffing, he thought PATE might be very much interested in Dr. S. A. LISCHINSKY. WEINTRAUB said that LISCHINSKY had been associated with him for the past ten years or more in various capacities as a statistician, research economist, and in an operating capacity. He said that for the past two years, LISCHINSKY had been with UNRRA where he studied as a research economist dealing with the entire range of UNRRA programs, including food, medicine, clothing, agricultural and industrial rehabilitation items. He said that he understood that Dr. LISCHINSKY expected to remain with UNRRA for a little while but is to become available soon. Thereupon, WEINTRAUB recommended LISCHINSKY to PATE most highly and gave PATE, LISCHINSKY's home address and phone number where he might be reached.

Reference is made to the report dated January 24, 1947, in this case wherein it was indicated that the following calls were made from LISCHINSKY's extension: August 21, 1946, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Telephone Number DE 4-0300, J. J. GRADY; September 23, 1946, an incoming call from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Telephone Number Dewey 4-1109.

The Philadelphia Office on February 18, 1947, advised that Telephone Number, Dewey 4-1109, is listed to Mrs. L. JOSEPHINE HALLOWELL, 1724 South Broad Street, Philadelphia, and Dewey 4-0300 is listed to JAMES J. GRADY, 1500 Porter Street, Philadelphia, real estate broker.

According to the records of the Voters' Registration Commission, Philadelphia, JOSEPHINE HALLOWELL was born March 18, 1868, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. She is a housewife; height, five feet, six inches; eyes, brown; hair, white; and is a registered Republican. FRANK J. WIGNORE, Mail Carrier, advised that Mrs. JOSEPHINE HALLOWELL still resided at 1724 South Broad Street, Philadelphia. The house was formerly owned by F. KAPLAN about a year ago at which time her married daughter, Mrs. LISCHINSKY, first name unknown, who resides in Washington, D. C., with her husband became the owner. The house was formerly operated as a rooming house but at the present time, Mrs. HALLOWELL is the sole occupant.

Under pretext, Mrs. HALLOWELL was contacted and substantiated the information furnished by Mr. WIGNORE. In addition thereto, Mrs. HALLOWELL advised that J. J. GRADY, a real estate broker at 1500 Porter Street, Philadelphia, handled the sale of the house for Mrs. LISCHINSKY. Mrs. HALLOWELL has resided at this address for the past thirteen years.

It is apparent that JAMES J. GRADY's connection with the subject was in regard to the sale of the above property. The following information concerning him was obtained from his Selective Service file at Local Draft Board No. 82 and the Voters' Registration Commission in Philadelphia.

GRADY was born on March 2, 1906, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He has operated a real estate business at 1500 Porter Street for approximately fifteen years. Since 1939, he has resided at 109 West Mermaid Lane, Philadelphia. He is married to ANN K. GRADY and they have two

Re: HARRY SAMUEL LAGDOFF (X) u

The following information was furnished by Confidential Informant [redacted] for the period March 16 to March 31, 1947 inclusive. This investigation was conducted by Special Agent AUBREY S. BRENT. (X) u

March 16, 1947 (X) u

On this date the informant ascertained that ED FITZGERALD contacted BEADIE LAGDOFF and discussed HARRY LAGDOFF and the new Council of American Business. On this occasion BEADIE and ED FITZGERALD discussed the speech of former Secretary of Commerce HARRY WALLACE and the efforts of V. LEWIS VASSIE to interest WALLACE in the Research Institute Organization which these men desire to establish. BEA and ED agree that WALLACE will not receive considerable publicity in this country but that he will probably receive more publicity on his speeches made in London. (X) u

On this occasion BEADIE asked ED FITZGERALD what was the matter with CHARLEY CRAMER, commenting that she saw him on the street the other day and that he was cold and unfriendly. ED explained that he had noticed that even while having lunch with CHARLEY the latter would only say what he had to and otherwise appeared to be very much preoccupied. BEADIE wondered if CHARLEY was on the outs with HARRY. ED did not think so because he believed it was something personal. They agreed that CHARLEY must be ill or terribly worried about something and ED pointed out that CHARLEY had been unemployed for about six months now. BEADIE also asked if ED knew what had happened to "that guy, I can't recall his name now. He has a little girl called Katy?" ED said "VIC?" BEADIE said "Yes". ED advised her that VIC was still at the Treasury and was thinking of that job in New York "which none of us think is a good idea but he does". ED explained that he referred VIC to this person" and he went up to see her and saw the "other gal". He further explained that he had lunch with VIC the other day and VIC was still looking for a job. BEADIE asked if there was any urgency in his case and ED commented that there was. At this time BEADIE stated that pretty soon there would be just ED and VEE. (X) u

The informant ascertained that HARRY LAGDOFF's income for 1946 was $8,500 and that they spent $5,000 last year exclusive of taxes. The informant also ascertained at this time that HARRY LAGDOFF was in New York City and would probably return no later than Tuesday evening. (X) u

Subsequently on this date MAGDOFF in New York City contacted BEADIE advising her of the results of a meeting held by the NCAB in New York City. At this time the informant learned that the committee decided to build up along the lines HARRY suggested and that HARRY would have an office with a secretary in Washington, D. C. It was also learned that HARRY was asked to take a ten per cent cut in salary and that the Chicago Office of the NCAB was being closed. He informed BEADIE that the people who were going to work on the NCAB would be ROBERT TRUBECK, SIDLEY ROTH, MIKE NICHOLSON (phonetic) and HENRETH (phonetic) from Chicago. The informant learned that HARRY would catch the 5:30 P.M. train Tuesday afternoon with ROBERT TRUBECK. (S) u

March 17, 1947 (S) u

BOB SCANLON, a friend of the AXELRODS, contacted BEADIE MAGDOFF advising that he was coming to Washington in approximately two weeks to take a position in the Engineering Department of CAA and desired some data concerning the housing situation. BEADIE invited SCANLON to come out the next time he comes to Washington and stated that NATHAN told them about Bob's getting the job. (S) u

Later on this date HARRY MAGDOFF informed BEADIE that he had finished his weekly report and now had to see GEORGE. He will take the 5:30 P.M. train for Washington the next day. The informant learned that MAGDOFF has an engagement with OTTO (NATHAN ?) for lunch Thursday or Friday. (S) u

Subsequently HERB SCHIMMEL contacted BEADIE seeking to locate HARRY. SCHIMMEL requested that HARRY contact him on Wednesday. (S) u

March 18, 1947 (S) u

On this date ED FITZGERALD informed BEADIE that he had tentatively scheduled a meeting in his office for the next afternoon at 3 P.M. on the Institute affair and that if HARRY had returned by that time he should call ED and attend the meeting, if possible. BEADIE explained that HARRY was coming to Washington with TRUBECK and that she believed they had a meeting with the President's Economic Council tomorrow. ED discussed the full-page advertisement appearing in the Times that day, sponsored by the Progressive Citizens of America. BEADIE commented that (S) u the Washington Post editorially takes WALLACE to pieces but it was very interesting to note that the box for letters on Greece today contained three letters all opposing the President's position. ED thinks the thing is beginning to gather momentum now. BEADIE advised that she has a very one-sided view as all she reads is the Washington Post and PM and thinks she is immediately inclined to discount PM as she feels nobody of much importance pays it any mind. (S) u

[March 18, 1947] (S) u

On this date ABELIA PERAZICH was in contact with BEADIE MAGDOFF. Subsequently HARRY MAGDOFF contacted ED FITZGERALD at which time ED discussed the proposed meeting for the next day in ED's office at 3 o'clock. HARRY explained that he was having a meeting with the Economic Council all day tomorrow and would therefore be unable to attend. ED asked "what is the Economic Council going to do for you?" and HARRY said "we're the business advising committee". (S) u

Later SIDNEY ROTH advised HARRY MAGDOFF that he had been unable to reach BYRD (phonetic). The informant learned that HARRY was having breakfast in the morning with TRUBECK who is stopping at the Willard Hotel. ROTH mentioned incidentally that TRUBECK seemed to have the idea that KRAEMER and SCHIMMEL were sort of asking for a job but HARRY does not think that they are. SIDNEY explained that he saw those boys as interested in aiding and being associated in some way and he did not want to discourage them because he wanted to see if there was some way they could be helpful. (S) u

On this date HASKELL WALD (phonetic) contacted BEADIE in an effort to locate HARRY. WALD was advised that HARRY was at the office. (S) u

Subsequently IRVING KAPLAN contacted BEADIE in an effort to locate HARRY. He was advised that HARRY went down town to have breakfast with TRUBECK this morning and they were then going to the meeting of the President's Economic Council which will probably last all day. The informant ascertained that BEADIE was expecting TRUBECK for dinner that evening and she desired to have IRVING and DOROTHY KAPLAN and the VAN TASSELS to dinner also. IRVING KAPLAN explained that (S) u

he and DOROTHY would be unable to attend tonight but that the VAN TASSELS would probably be free to come. (S) u

The informant advised that PEGGY NIERENBERG was in touch with BEADIE LAGDOFF. Later the informant advised that BEADIE LAGDOFF conversed with DAVE CARLINER at the NCAB office and ascertained that HARRY would be there about 5 P.M. (S) u

Subsequently BEADIE contacted BEATRICE VAN TASSEL advising that ROBERT TRUBECK was possibly coming for dinner with HARRY and that HARRY wanted to talk with VAN and have him meet TRUBECK. The informant learned that VAN would be able to attend but that BEATRICE VAN TASSEL would be unable to attend. It appeared that HARRY desired to talk to VAN TASSEL about the new council inasmuch as they needed a representative on the Hill. (S) u

Later HARRY LAGDOFF informed his son that he was bringing ROBERT TRUBECK home for dinner. (S) u

The informant later ascertained that TRUBECK was at the residence of the LAGDOFFS at which time he contacted the Willard Hotel and the following telegram was read to him: (S) u

"Had nice talk with Mr. B. He is very willing to work something out with us. Have informed Mike. Appointment made for Friday at 3:30 P.M. (S) u

/s/ SIDNEY"

[March 20, 1947] (S) u

On this date the informant ascertained that AEELIA PERAZICH was again in contact with BEADIE LAGDOFF. (S) u

[March 21, 1947] (S) u

BEADIE LAGDOFF was in touch with SOL LISCHINSKY who resides at Fairfax Village. She invited SOL to come over tomorrow night, if possible. (S) u

Later the informant learned that ROBERT TRUBECK contacted HARRY MAGDOFF advising that he went to a cocktail party today where he met SYLVIA PORTER. TRUBECK and HARRY agreed that she could be useful to them. TRUBECK explained that he had a long talk with her and that she was against the NAM and all that business but the one question she asked was why the NCAB could not tie up with the CED. It was agreed that HARRY would write a memorandum on the CED for TRUBECK. ROB also told HARRY about meeting JACOB LANDAU of the Jewish Telegraph Agency tonight. ROB asked if LANDAU was not a good guy and HARRY replied "Well I don't know. They have some wonderful stuff in their cables, etc." ROB explained that LANDAU was leaving for South America on April 4 but he told LANDAU on the new council and he is going to call TRUBECK next week to try to do something before he goes. (S) u

Further discussion pertaining to the NCAB was held during the course of which the names of OTTO MASON, an economist, ELLIOTT JANEAY (phonetic) were mentioned. (S) u

[March 22, 1947] (S) u

The informant learned that HARRY MAGDOFF endeavored to reach Mr. NIXON at "UE" but was advised that NIXON would be out of town until Tuesday. (S) u

Later ABE ZITES (phonetic) contacted HARRY MAGDOFF advising that he had been in town since Thursday for the conference and commented that the conference was going "pretty good" and then referred HARRY to MIKE who stated "we have a reception at 4:30 for Congressmen in the Congressional Room at the Willard. I wish you would come over because I want to talk to you." HARRY advised MIKE that he would come to the Willard and then asked if MIKE had seen BERGE. MIKE stated that he had spent two hours with BERGE and that it was all settled. (S) u

The informant has previously advised that the NCAB was endeavoring to obtain the services of EMELLL BERGE as general counsel for his organization. (S) u

Later on this date HARRY MAGDOFF and IRVING KAPLAN discussed affairs pertaining to their proposed Institute. HARRY advised on this occasion that VAN TASSEL was being considered as the NCAB's legislative representative in Washington. He also stated that they were probably getting BERGE as general counsel. (S) u

Later VEET VASSIE contacted MAGDOFF advising that he went over to see HENRY WALLACE this morning. VEET stated that he talked to WALLACE for approximately one hour and that most of the conversation was on the Greek business. He informed HARRY that WALLACE is busy preparing a speech he is going to give on March 31 in Madison Square Garden and that in view of the fact that this was his main interest at the moment, he did not discuss in detail the endeavors they were making to organize their Institute but merely stated that "You guys were being reorganized and that I gathered from what you said your crowd would throw something to this if it were started, but couldn't start it yourselves". VASSIE commented that WALLACE had a preliminary draft of the speech and read it to him asking for his opinion. According to VASSIE the speech sounded pretty good but it appeared that WALLACE was getting into the pattern of what you might call the pattern of imperialistic power politics. VEET thought it was good but pointed out to WALLACE that he did not make the connection with the immediate issue clear enough. He felt that most people would not get the connection and it would sound to them as if WALLACE were talking about two other people. So VASSIE suggested that he come back to the immediate issue and reiterate the facts of the case about "this Government", that is, in their not being democratic and the necessity of broadening it out to be more representative of the people. VASSIE stated that WALLACE agreed and he believes that WALLACE will modify his speech somewhat. (S) u

The informant ascertained that MAGDOFF had a scheduled luncheon with IRVING KAPLAN for Monday and that VASSIE would join them if possible. (S) u

March 23, 1947 (S) u

On this date GEORGE SILVERMAN was in contact with HARRY MAGDOFF and they discussed the affairs of the NCAB and ROBERT WEINBERG. GEORGE invited HARRY to his apartment that night stating that DOROTHY and IRVING KAPLAN would be present. However, HARRY informed him that he would be unable to come and that he would call GEORGE when he gets to New York. (S) u

Subsequently AL BUTLER, Co-Chairman of the United Jewish Relief, contacted HARRY MAGDOFF and inquired if VEET VASSIE was Jewish. (S) u

HARRY commented he did not think VASSIE was Jewish but he believed that VASSIE would be glad to make a contribution. (S) u

[March 24, 1947] (S) u

On this date the informant ascertained that HARRY MAGDOFF was going to New York tomorrow for a few hours and would return to Washington the same day. (S) u

Subsequently CHARLOTTE CHASE contacted BEADIE MAGDOFF in connection with matters pertaining to the League of Women Voters. On this occasion CHARLOTTE asked BEADIE how she liked the speaker at the meeting today, inasmuch as CHARLOTTE did not like him very much. BEADIE commented that she liked the speaker because he was from the State Department and was not afraid to state that the Russians were cooperative and not the troublemakers they are accused of being. BEADIE further stated that the way sentiment is going now she doesn't think the speaker will be a State Department employee too much longer. (S) u

[March 25, 1947] (S) u

On this date the informant learned that HARRY MAGDOFF was in New York City and would return to Washington by plane that night. (S) u

[March 26, 1947] (S) u

JANE STONE contacted BEADIE MAGDOFF and asked how the Board Meeting was yesterday. BEADIE stated that their trend on Greece "stinks" and lamented the Four Foreign Policy of the League in respect to their policy when BEADIE first joined the League. JANE agreed with her. BEADIE said they are going in big for economics now which is better than taking a lousy stand on international policy. JANE stated that it would be better for them to get down to grass roots than just being another AAUW. They discussed the fact that League members are being very critical of a favorable attitude toward the Russians and JANE commented that her PTA President, TOM WRIGHT, a neighbor called the League a bunch of Communists. On this date BEADIE was in contact with ~~MILDRED~~ MARY, 2600 South Hayes Street, telephone Jackson 2592 J, to advise that there was going to be discussions in groups on international policies at the first meeting in May. BEADIE told MILDRED that when HARRY read the League's trends on Greece's problem, he said that the League had finally given up their one-world policy though BEADIE thought they straddled the fence. (S) u

Later the informant ascertained that GIBBY NEEDLEMAN was at the MAGDOFF apartment at which time he contacted Eastern Airlines. Subsequently on this date HARRY MAGDOFF conversed with GITA SCHLIMMEL inquiring for HERB SCHLIMMEL. HARRY was advised that HERB was sick. HARRY informed GITA that he was anxious to talk to HERB either tonight or tomorrow. (S) u

[March 28, 1947] (S) u

HERB SCHLIMMEL contacted MAGDOFF advising that CLAUDE PEPPER had left town but HERB had checked with PEPPER's secretary and had ascertained that both PEPPER and KILGORE have meetings in the morning and both can be seen on the Senate floor in the afternoon. HERB SCHLIMMEL stated that he made an appointment with KILGORE for 4:30 and that they could try to get him back to his office so they could be more relaxed. HARRY asked about PEPPER at which time HERB explained that this was just a question of taking him off the floor or seeing him Monday morning if they want to make it a supper date. SCHLIMMEL and MAGDOFF finally agreed on the meeting with KILGORE at 4:30 and tentatively agreed to get PEPPER off the floor. At this time HARRY did not know what time he would see MORSE. (S) u

[March 28, 1947] (S) u

On this date the informant ascertained that HARRY was going away Thursday and would probably not return until Friday evening. Later PETER PETERSON advised MAGDOFF that he had the setup for HARRY at 9:30 A.M. Tuesday morning. He stated that Mrs. HALL is the secretary to this man with whom HARRY has the appointment on Tuesday. TRUBECK will be with HARRY when he keeps the appointment. (S) u

Later on this date BEADIE MAGDOFF conversed with AMELIA PERAZICH who advised that her husband, GEORGE, may be home next Saturday morning for the day. (S) u

[March 30, 1947] (S) u

On this date MAGDOFF informed HERB SCHLEZEL that the MORSE appointment was for Tuesday morning which means that TRUEBECK will be free tomorrow morning. HARRY asked if it would be possible to see PEPPER and HARLEY KILGORE tomorrow morning. HERB said it was impossible because they both have their committee meetings in the morning. HERB said to figure on PEPPER either around 3:30 P.M. or at supper time and KILGORE around 4:30 P.M. HERB will check and contact HARRY in the morning. (S) u

Later HARRY MAGDOFF again endeavored to contact RUSS NIXON and was informed that NIXON was out of town and would be in the office tomorrow. (S) u

The informant later ascertained that MAGDOFF contacted ROBERT TRUEBECK at Leonia, New Jersey, telephone Leona 4-1191, advising that Monday morning is free. They have a luncheon engagement with BERGE at 1 P.M.; PEPPER at 3:30 P.M. or at supper and KILGORE at 4:30 P.M. HARRY gathered that KILGORE, if they talked to him, might be willing to actually send out the invitations to the Senators for this private dinner. They also have an engagement with MORSE on Tuesday morning at 9:30 A.M. HARRY informed TRUEBECK that RUSS NIXON was out of town again but is due back tomorrow. TRUEBECK informed HARRY that he would take the 8:15 A.M. plane down tomorrow morning and will come to HARRY's office. TRUEBECK states that if he stays over until noon on Tuesday there will be a better chance to see RUSS NIXON. (S) u

[March 31, 1947] (S) u

On this date BEADIE MAGDOFF was again in contact with AMELIA PERAZICH. (S) u

BEADIE also learned from DAVE CARLINER and subsequently from HARRY, himself, that HARRY would not be home for dinner inasmuch as he was staying in town until approximately 10 or 11 P.M. (S) u

[JOHN PAUL LILA: MARSALKA] u

The following investigation is being reported by Special Agent W. RAYMOND ANNALL for the period March 16 through March 31, 1947:

Informant [redacted] reported that Mr. and Mrs. MARSALKA received an annual statement for the year 1946 from the Potomac Cooperative Federation, 2621 Virginia Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C., concerning Rochdale Cooperative Incorporated, Store No. 1, and indicated that the MARSALKAS were members of the cooperative. The statement enclosed what appeared to be a monthly paper entitled "Co-Op" which carried in the masthead the address 1519 Wisconsin Avenue, N. W. The paper was for the month of February, 1947 and contained certain news about items available to members of the "Co-Op".

Informant [redacted] also furnished a personal letter which had been addressed to Mrs. MARSALKA from an unknown individual in Czechoslovakia. The letter was signed "Charles and Lillian" and was written entirely in English. From the nature of the letter it appeared that the writers were apparently relatives of Mrs. MARSALKA.

Informant [redacted] also furnished an announcement sent to Mrs. MARSALKA by the Czech American National Alliance, Washington Branch, of which FRANCIS MAY was listed as president and FRANK C. NEMCEK was listed as secretary. The announcement stated that the Washington branch would meet at May's Restaurant, 2317 Calvert Street, N. W., on Wednesday, March 12, 1947 at 8:00 P.M. to celebrate the ninety seventh anniversary of the birth of the first president of Czechoslovakia, THOMAS GARRIGUE MASARYK. It was stated that the meeting would be addressed by Dr. ZURAN SLAVIK, the Czechoslovakian ambassador to the United States, and that the refreshments would include koblihy, which President MASARYK liked so well.

BOB MILLER contacted JOE GILMAN and he suggested that they have a meeting at his home before going down town. GILMAN remarked that two men are coming from Virginia and did not want to come all the way out to MILLER's residence; therefore, they made arrangements to meet down town to discuss the probabilities of going into the Public Relations business and also the disposal of surplus property to foreign governments. "There will be published on the Princeton campus on or about the twentieth of February the first edition of an undergraduate liberal journal. This journal will be managed and operated by the recently formed Princeton Liberal Union. The editorial policy of the journal will be designed to bring the liberal view on matters of national interest to the undergraduates. I am sure that you will agree that there is a need for such a journal on this campus. (S) u

"Along that line, Professor Hadley Cantril, who has cooperated with us on this venture and who has consented to write an editorial for the first edition, has informed me that you may have some interesting information concerning a recent State Department Appropriations Bill and the rider attached thereto. I am fully aware of the peculiar delicacy of your position in this matter; however, I can assure you the utmost confidential treatment on any information you may give us in regards this bill. (S) u

McCarran Rider

"What interests us in this business is the number and author of the bill and the rider. We would be further interested in the general reaction on the part of the liberals in the State Department to the rider, and any tie-ups it may have with the recent quittings of certain members of the Department. There are at this time rumors that others are going to leave; any dope on that score would prove interesting. (S) u

"As I have mentioned, our first edition is to be published on or about February 20th, and it would be of great help to us and to the liberal movement at Princeton if an editorial on this bill could be included in our first issue. That would of course mean receiving the information from you as soon as is possible. (S) u

"May I repeat that there will be no mention of your name in connection with the entire matter. Professor Cantril has given me your name with that strict reservation. But he feels, and we share his view, that the urgency of this news would provide us with an exceptional article for our first issue. If it is at all possible you might provide us with an adequate source that we may quote, we would certainly appreciate it. (S) u

The following information was obtained from ~~Confidential~~ Informant u

[March 19, 1947]

VICTOR PERLO contacted his mother or mother-in-law and asked if they mailed his birth certificate as he had requested by letter. VICTOR then conversed with his father (?) and asked him to send his birth certificate special delivery. VICTOR explained that he will have to go to London in a couple of weeks as he has just been appointed Treasurer of the Intergovernmental Committee on Refugees which has its headquarters in London. He further explained what this organization is and mentioned the fact that it will be merged into the International Refugee Organization as soon as it is set up.

On this occasion the informant ascertained that PERLO's boss at the Treasury Department recommended him for the position u and that PERLO received a cable offering him the appointment and further that PERLO had cabled his acceptance to London today to Sir HERBERT ER-SON, Director of the organization. The informant also ascertained that PERLO will receive 10,000, plus 7 per cent more when he quits. PERLO needed his birth certificate for his passport. (S) u

The informant learned that PERLO planned to quit his job at the Treasury and will come to New York City with ELLEN and the kids the weekend after he resigns next week. (S) u

[March 20, 1947] (S) u

The informant ascertained that an unidentified man advised he would see VICTOR PERLO at 1:15. (S) u

[March 22, 1947] (S) u

The informant advised that VICTOR PERLO conversed with an unidentified woman regarding his new position. The informant ascertained that this woman had a copy of a letter from EMERSON to SALTER (phonetic) at the United States Embassy in London asking him to cable to the State Department the fact that he had offered PERLO this position. In this letter EMERSON states, "I am writing to you to thank you for your letter in which you advise me that the State Department has proposed Mr. Victor Perlo.....I know he has been informed that he will receive transportation for himself to and from London and that the IGC can not offer him any permanency of tenure but that assuming satisfactory performance, the State Department will support him for a position in the IRO when the latter organization comes into being. It should, I think, be further explained to him that the IRO is likely to come into being around the 30th of June, next, and that the IGC, therefore, can not give him a contact beyond that date. He will be allowed the benefits of the Providence Fund and will be subject to the staff regulations and he can secure copies of this in the Washington Office. I shall be grateful if you will cable to the State Department asking that a firm offer be made to Mr. Perlo on behalf of the IGC on the understanding that he will join his appointment not later than the first of April." ALICE GOLDMAN advised VICTOR PERLO and ELLEN PERLO that they would drop in and visit them this afternoon about 3 o'clock. ELLEN commented that it was a good thing she was visiting them now as they are leaving town. She informed ALICE that VICTOR was leaving in a couple of weeks. ALICE GOLDMAN is probably the wife of Dr. FREDERICK H. GOLDMAN, 4710 Upton Street, N. W., Emerson 3464. These individuals, according to Confidential Informant [REDACTED] have been in contact with the PERLOS on previous occasions. (S) u b2 b7D

Later on March 23 the informant advised that SAM contacted VICTOR PERLO stating that he has just come out of the store and would like to come over some night after they closed the store. PERLO advised they were going to New York on Friday for a few days and then he would be back in Washington for a couple of days the following week. It was agreed that SAM and his wife would visit the PERLOS on Tuesday night and VICTOR PERLO gave SAM his address. PERLO informed SAM he was going overseas in a couple of weeks but the family would not go until he got settled. (S) u

Subsequently, however, on March 25, 1947, SAM advised ELLEN PERLO that he had to work and therefore would not be able to visit them that night. (S) u

[March 26, 1947] (S) u

ELLEN PERLO contacted her husband and asked him if he had seen the letter which came from BILL a couple of days ago. VICTOR replied that he had not seen the letter and, therefore, ELLEN opened it and advised VICTOR that the letter mentioned that the last moves were both (S) u

(S)u

[March 27, 1947] (S)u

NICHOLAS LENEKER contacted ELLEN PERLO to ask if FANNIE or ELLEN had $20.00. He explained that VICTOR's plane may be canceled and he may have to buy train tickets. NICHOLAS said that VICTOR had told him that he had a meeting at the State Department at 5:45 and for NICHOLAS to go on and not wait for him. (S)u

JOAN COPPOCK talked to DORIS PLENN and mentioned that her husband WILSON is quite discouraged. (It will be recalled that WILSON COPPOCK is employed by CIG and at the present time is faced with the possibility of dismissal.) DORIS told JOAN that WILSON must keep fighting so that Civil Liberties will not die. JOAN mentioned that WILSON was endeavoring to get a good lawyer to assist him and indicated that he might also secure a Congressman to endorse him. (S) u

DEWITT ELDRIDGE in a conversation with DORIS PLENN invited her to have lunch with him, which invitation was declined. They discussed (S) u

a variety of subjects among which was mentioned that MURIEL DRAPER might come to Washington sometime between April 6 and 11. DeWITT mentioned that his wife HOPE and VIRGINIA (LEWIS) had both been "naughty". He explained that they were supposed to attend the Congress of American Women's reception but had not done so. DORIS commented that they could still sign up with SYLVIA WEITSCHER and DeWITT indicated that he would see to it that HOPE did so. He explained that VIRGINIA might not do so because she is "so wary". DeWITT mentioned that the assembly of the American Veterans Committee, consisting of some 36 groups in and around the Metropolitan area of Washington, passed a very strong resolution condemning President Truman's Greek policy. DeWITT indicated he was really quite surprised but felt that this action showed how "the idea has caught on". DORIS asked him if a young man named EARL COLEMAN had contacted him. She explained that COLEMAN was a young Naval officer who, after leaving the service, enrolled as a student at George Washington University. DORIS indicated that this young man is lonely and needs friends. DeWITT promised to see that he was contacted. They then discussed another student, one TOM BAKER, whose name has previously appeared in this report and who is known to entertain extremely liberal and pro-Communist ideas. DORIS commented that TOM BAKER is only 19 years old but could be an "auxiliary boy". DeWITT indicated once again that he would see that both BAKER and COLEMAN were contacted. (X) u

The discussion then turned to the discussion of the KING-SMITH SCHOOL which is located in Washington, D. C. DORIS explained that the school was giving a course which dealt with political philosophy in world economy and indicated that the individual instructing the class is a very "forward-looking person". (It will be noted later in this insert that this individual is PALMER WEBER.) (X) u

[March 20, 1947] (X) u

DORIS PLENN attempted to contact VIRGINIA LEWIS at the Treasury Department but was unsuccessful. (X) u

[March 21, 1947] (X) u

GEORGE FRAIN talked to DORIS PLENN and told her about a meeting apparently concerning foreign policy which was to be held at 1013 18th Street, N. W., at 2 P.M. on the following Sunday. FRAIN (X) u requested that DORIS bring as many people as she possibly could. FRAIN and DORIS PLENN both discussed the meeting generally and seemed certain that it would be very liberal in scope. DORIS also inquired if KATHERINE HURLEY had been notified of the meeting and FRAIN indicated that she had. (S) u

JOAN COPPOCK spoke to DORIS PLENN with regard to WILSON COPPOCK's position. JOAN mentioned that WILSON was to be given a hearing concerning his position early the following week. She also mentioned that he had contacted Senator Sheppard and that things generally looked more favorable than they had previously. DORIS commented that it was most necessary for WILSON to keep calm. JOAN mentioned that they were quite anxious to find out what the outcome of the entire proceedings would be. (S) u

The conversation then turned to a discussion of social affairs and DORIS mentioned that she had recently had tea at KATHERINE HURLEY's home. JOAN mentioned that the Congress of American Women wanted her to get an interview with Congresswoman HELEN CAHAGAN DOUGLAS in an effort to secure her as a speaker. (S) u

VIRGINIA LEWIS talked to DORIS PLENN and mentioned she is leaving for New York the following Monday or Tuesday; that she is going to be out of a job very shortly and hopes to find work in New York. DORIS indicated that VIRGINIA could contact ABEL at his brother's residence, 64 West 9th Street, and that the telephone number there would be listed under the name GRACE GREENWOOD. (S) u

[March 23, 1947] (S) u

In a conversation between JOAN COPPOCK and DORIS PLENN, President Truman's order for the dismissal of disloyal Government employees was discussed. Both women expressed their strong disapproval of the order, DORIS indicating that in her opinion it threatened civil liberties. They agreed to get together at DORIS' home at 5 o'clock that afternoon for tea. (S) u

DORIS PLENN contacted DeWITT ELDRIDGE and during the conversation read a letter she had prepared which condemned President Truman's Executive Order, referred to in the previous paragraph. This letter which was obviously prepared for publication in the press is set forth in its entirety as follows; (S) u

~~SECRET~~~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

"It would be a public service if your paper would reveal the facts behind this Executive Order - Exactly, how is it possible for a Government employee to commit sabotage or treason in the execution of his daily task? Specifically, how is it possible for Government workers to serve the interest of another Government in preference to the United States? Is the secret of the atomic bomb floating around Government offices? What, if any, secrets are there anywhere in the Government agencies involved? What plans and purposes can there be that other Governments would find it valuable to know? As to these subversive people's advocacy of the overthrow of our Constitution, I for one have absolutely no fear on that score - I come from a line of people who at one stage in the past were seditious as hell - not only did they advocate the overthrow of the Government but they took up arms, muskets and bullets against it. In humiliation and in the bitterness of defeat they learned that the Union still held and the Constitution endured. I should like to remind this generation of law makers who fear the safety of the Constitution of this fact and urge them to cast out fear. I should also like to tell them this: Gentlemen, if Robert E. Lee couldn't do it, it can't be done. At no time during the reconstruction was it found necessary to probe into our hearts or to say that membership in the Confederate Army or sympathetic association with it were grounds for refusing a man or woman the right to work."

ELDRIDGE thought it was a very good letter although a bit too long. He indicated, however, that it should be "very valuable". He also mentioned that he had written two or three letters to the Washington Post and that VIRGINIA LEWIS had written one and signed his name. DORIS commented that as a citizen she is terribly upset about the President's order and DEWITT ELDRIDGE commented that his wife HOPE is depressed - as all Government workers. Both of them proceeded to denounce the order in very bitter terms for a considerable length of time. Finally DORIS PLENN commented that she had cousins employed in Washington with the FBI, the Department of Agriculture and the State Department. She mentioned that she never saw these cousins but felt sure that their parents and relatives were most upset if their loyalty were ever questioned. DEWITT and DORIS then spoke to the effect that the American people would not take this order lying down and even carried their discussion to the point where both of them agreed that President Truman should be impeached.

VIRGINIA LEWIS talked to DORIS PLENN and mentioned that she was leaving for New York that afternoon. The conversation between the two women was insignificant. (S)u

JOAN COPPOCK contacted DORIS PLENN and the two women discussed President TRUMAN's order for dismissal of disloyal employees from the Government. JOAN, as DORIS, had composed a letter expressing her sentiments on this order. The letter is quoted as follows:

"Sir:

"As a comparative newcomer to the United States I was shocked and appalled to read of the forthcoming Government purge authorized by President Truman's announcement. Can this really be happening in America, whose gates the Statue of Liberty so proudly stands in? While I would not be guilty of bad taste in making unfavorable comparisons with another country, I must explain my incomprehension by saying that in England, the country of my birth, tolerance of other people's political viewpoint is one happy result of centuries of struggle and is taken for granted. I come of a long line of die-hard Torys but it was never suggested to me because my neighbor thought differently or preached a different creed that he was disloyal to his country. Political opinion is not confused with patriotism. Therefore I find it hard to understand the reasons for the President's step. If this were a weak country struggling hard to establish a stable Government after a disastrous war I might see some grounds for the suppression of opposition. But what has the United States, the most powerful country in the world, to fear? Surely the few disloyal Government workers/^{for} which the President is setting up this huge and costly machine to dislodge, would not be capable of disrupting a powerful Government, firmly established and formulated by centuries of popular will, and what of these few who will be purged? What hope does the future hold for them? Secretary of State Marshall must be suffering from embarrassment in Moscow to find that his very fine definition of America's conception of democracy no longer applies to his own country. Dismissal from Government service on grounds of disloyalty is tantamount to a denial to the right to work. What organization would "consider employing such a person? And lack of work, while it does not deprive him of life, certainly restricts his liberty and pursuit of happiness. Liberty, indeed, is gone already if he has not the freedom to disagree with his employer's method of working, though at the time conscientiously carrying out that method and does not such a purge leave regrettable loopholes of action motivated by personal envy and professional rivalry. We have seen how the first investigation worked over the Lilienthal nomination though fortunately in this case justice and good judgment prevailed. Will they also so prevail under the terms of this new pronouncement. How can the President say it will not be a witchhunt when the possibility exists for unscrupulous persons to make it so. Having been brought up to regard America as a traditional land of freedom and independent in thought word and action, this new turn of events is like a bad dream to me. Less than two years ago we finished fighting Hitler for his ruthless suppression of minorities and his denial of man's inalienable rights. Are we now to follow in his footsteps?

COPPOCK

DORIS praised JOAN's letter and suggested she send a copy to the Atlanta Constitution, indicating that this paper is a fighting liberal newspaper. DORIS mentioned that she is sending her letter (quoted previously) to the Atlanta Constitution, the New York Herald Tribune, the St. Louis Post Dispatch and to HENRY WALLACE. JOAN mentioned that she felt like saying in her letter that since the order was aimed at Communists it would be logical to reply "Well these so-called Communists were good enough to work and to fight for you and die for you during the war". DORIS commented that at that time no one questioned their loyalty. JOAN stated that she felt they are now to be sacrificed on the altar of political expedience and DORIS replied that such action was against the Constitution, explaining her argument by saying that the Constitution guarantees the people the right to change it and to overthrow it; therein is the duty of the Constitution, therein is the reason it will never fail. (S) u

On the same date an individual named ERNEST, believed to be ERNEST R. POPE of FCC, contacted DORIS PLEIN. ERNEST was quite upset because of the fact that he has been suspended for the second time and final time unless he was fortunate enough to wage a successful fight against the suspension. He did not reveal to DORIS the nature (S) u of the charge against him but merely spoke generally indicating that he did not play office politics and was not in with the right crowd and as a result was being victimized. They briefly discussed the President's Executive Order and DORIS commented that she didn't "hold with Communists" but indicated she had no fear of them. She commented "I'm not at all afraid for the Constitution. That magnificent structure can not be overturned by anybody. Let me tell you one thing, if Robert E. Lee couldn't do it, it can't be done." ERNEST and DORIS agreed that the President's Executive Order would probably result in more harm than good. DORIS sympathized with ERNEST's predicament and mentioned that he was going through the same type of disagreeable experience that AEL had on his return from Spain. ERNEST mentioned that some of the charges which aggravated him the most were such charges as returning late from lunch, insubordination, and refusal to perform work as requested. He told DORIS that he was going to make a fight to the finish and see the matter through to the end. (S) u

In a conversation between JOAN COPPOCK and DORIS PLENN, JOAN mentioned that ~~MURIEL DRAPER~~ might come to Washington the next day. JOAN mentioned that SYLVIA SEITSCHLER had contacted her and mentioned that a delegation of some 400 members of the New York Chapter of the Congress of American Women were arriving in Washington the following morning to protest to Congress about the proposed intervention in Greece. JOAN indicated that she had telephoned about 20 different newspapers and news agencies in an effort to get photographers to cover the arrival of the delegation. She mentioned she had particular fun calling the Daily Worker, PM and the negro papers. (S) u

DEWITT FLORIDGE had a lengthy conversation with DORIS PLENN during which he mentioned that he had taken VIRGINIA LEWIS to the train on the previous afternoon. DEWITT and DORIS then discussed a variety of subjects and individuals including MURIEL DRAPER, FULTON LEWIS, JR., the brutality of Spanish Loyalists and TRUMAN's proposal for aid to Greece. DORIS mentioned that she had heard Senator PEPPER speak on the previous evening at the Raleigh Hotel, indicating that he spoke against President Truman's program on aid to Greece. She mentioned that after the program it was requested that the audience telephone in and state whether or not Truman or PEPPER was correct in policy. DORIS said she telephoned in and approved Senator PEPPER. (S) u

On the same date KATHERINE HURLEY talked to DORIS PLENN and they discussed attending a "class" that evening at 7:30 P.M. (The class referred to is a class in political philosophy at the King-Smith School which is being taught by PALMER WEBBER.) (S) u

DORIS PLENN talked to DEWITT ELDRIDGE at George Washington University. She told him that she attended the class at the King-Smith School on the previous evening which was conducted by PALMER WEBBER and mentioned that this was the man about whom she had previously spoken to ELDRIDGE. She commented that WEBBER attended the University of Virginia, later went to Oxford University and was a Rhodes scholar. DORIS described PALMER WEBBER enthusiastically, exclaiming "Oh, DeWitt, he is my favorite man." DEWITT ELDRIDGE indicated that he knew WEBBER, had attended classes with him at the University of Virginia and considered him a "charming man". He also mentioned that he had heard WEBBER speak on one occasion at the Southern Conference for Human Welfare meeting. DORIS encouraged DEWITT to attend the next class at the King-Smith School and DEWITT indicated that he would do so since he wished to see WEBBER. DORIS mentioned that the class she attended on the previous evening, Mr. and Mrs. IRVING RICHTER were in the audience. DORIS indicated that Mrs. RICHTER announced to the group that the poll which had been taken on Senator PEPPER's speech (mentioned previously) resulted in a four to one majority in favor of PEPPER's policy rather than TRUMAN's. (S) u

On this same date Mrs. LINNIE FROST RANDS had a lengthy conversation with DORIS PLENN. Mrs. RANDS identified herself as a friend of ELEANOR DREISEN and commented that she had once met DORIS at a party in Georgetown when she was Treasurer of the Spanish Committee. Mrs. RANDS indicated that she wanted DORIS and ELEANOR to attend a meeting at 1803 Connecticut Avenue on the coming Sunday afternoon at which time Brigadier General HOLDRIDGE, United States Army (Retired) would speak on the present crisis in American foreign and domestic affairs. Mrs. RANDS commented that during the war General HOLDRIDGE was in the Adjutant General's Office and described him as very much opposed to World War 3. She stated he had worked out a plan for social democracy and that this would be included in his discussion on Sunday afternoon. The two women discussed a number of matters during which Mrs. RANDS indi- (S) u

cated her unqualified support of Senators PEPPER and TAYLOR and also indicated her support for HENRY WALLACE. Mrs. RAND also mentioned that she feels friendly toward Russia, pointing out that Russia has a scientific experiment in existence and we should allow her to carry it on if for no other reason than that a scientist likes to see an experiment given a fair chance. DORIS agreed with her and commented that we seem to have lost a great deal of humility; that at other stages in our history we were able to look at cultures and learn from them but now we are arrogant which is the emotion behind imperialism. RANDS commented that recently Radio Commentator EARL GODWIN indicated that "the Red sheet PM is saying that all we are getting out of the Moscow conference is the American point of view". To which Godwin interpolates "Well for the love of Pete, who wants the Russian point of view". DORIS indicated that she is concerned about this Congress that trembles for the fate of the Constitution; that they should be asked to demonstrate a little more confidence in that structure. RANDS and DORIS agreed that President Truman's proposal concerning the loyalty of Government employees is terrible. RANDS stated that the same people who were helping Hitler at the beginning of the war are the ones behind this loyalty regulation and added that if the United States entered a third world war she would be a conscientious objector. (S) u

RANDS also mentioned that she didn't suppose the Communists advocated the overthrow of the Government and DORIS indicated that even if they did there have been individuals in the past who attempted to overthrow the Government but had been unsuccessful. RANDS and DORIS cited the American Revolution and the American Civil War as instances where on one occasion revolution was successful and on another occasion it failed. DORIS stated that she felt it was a sacred American right for an individual to be able to take matters of pertinent interest to one's mind from any culture, Russian, Yugoslavian or anything else in the world. (S) u

Mrs. RANDS mentioned to DORIS that it was hoped the meeting on Sunday would be so patriotic that people would not be afraid to attend on the belief that it smacked of Communism. During the conversation DE. JITT ELDRIDGE was mentioned and DORIS asked Mrs. RANDS if she knew him. It was brought out that Mrs. RANDS is originally from Statesville and Winston-Salem, North Carolina. Mrs. RANDS indicated that last year DE. JITT ELDRIDGE taught her daughter Spanish at George Washington University. Both women agreed that ELDRIDGE is extremely liberal. (S) u

After talking to Mrs. RANDE, DORIS FLENN talked to JOAN COPPOCK and told her about the invitation she had received for the meeting at which General HOLDRIDGE would be a speaker. It was agreed that WILSON and JOAN COPPOCK would also attend the meeting. DORIS then told JOAN about the political philosophy class she had attended at the King-Smith School which was conducted by Dr. PALMER WEBBER. DORIS encouraged JOAN to attend the next class and strongly endorsed PALMER WEBBER as "a most brilliant young man". (S) u

DORIS also mentioned that Mr. and Mrs. FRANK GERVASI would be present to hear General HOLDRIDGE speak. DORIS commented WILSON knows GERVASI. During the conversation JOAN mentioned that it was astonishing to see that there is so little confidence shown in the United Nations. She remarked that some people took the attitude that Russia would veto any proposal presented. DORIS remarked that Russia had not wanted the veto provision in the United Nations but the United States had crammed it down her throat and that it is iniquitous to say that Russia will veto any proposal presented. She stated that it is just as bad as saying that Russia would drop the atomic bomb on the United States tomorrow if she had it, which statement was made by Mr. BULLITT recently. (S) u

DORIS and JOAN discussed what positive action might be taken by the Congress of American Women to lobby against American aid to Greece and JOAN mentioned that all of the women were going to write to Congress. DORIS was very much elated to hear this and commented that American women have great power and influence if they will only use it. (S) u

[March 27, 1947] (S) u

DORIS PLENN contacted ELDREDGE and mentioned she was sorry he and HOPE did not come to the party. (Apparently referring to the party given by the Washington Book Shop on the evening of March 28.) DORIS commented that it was one of the best parties she ever attended and felt it was very important. She mentioned the Negro Handbook which was issued and DEWITT commented that he had the new issue. DORIS commented that Dr. JOHNSON (of Harvard University) was at the party and stressed the importance of attending the Southern Conference for Human Welfare Dinner at the Statler Hotel. DORIS said she felt at least one member of every family should attend. DEWITT stressed the need for the Southern Conference to put up a big front this year of all years. (S)u

On this same date JOAN COPECK and DORIS PLENN had a lengthy conversation in which JOAN told DORIS in detail about the remarks of General HOLLERIDGE. JOAN described General HOLLERIDGE as a member of the Socialist Party and mentioned that he openly said he was a Socialist. She indicated HOLLERIDGE began his address by saying the American policy was leading to war and described it as dollar imperialism. He then developed his talk and illustrated his plan for the socialization of American economy and industry. (S)u

JOAN mentioned that there was one "crackpot" in the audience who spoke up and said "well, Sir, under this system how are you going to produce a man like Henry Ford". JOAN indicated that she nearly said "who in the hell wants to". JOAN indicated that General HOLLERIDGE was very patient and explained that under his system everyone would be given a fair chance and more great men would be produced than are produced at present. (S)u

During the evening GRIGORI DOLBIN contacted ADEL PLENN and made arrangements for them to have lunch together on the following day at 1:00 P.M. at the La Parisienne Restaurant. It should be noted that this lunch was surveilled on the following day, which surveillance will be reported in the next investigative insert. (S)u

~~SECRET~~~~CONFIDENTIAL~~BERNARD SIDNEY REDMONT ~~u~~

The following is investigation reported by the New York Field Office by letter.

Investigation was conducted at the City College of New York, and review of the college newspaper entitled "The Campus" revealed that P. S. ROTHENBERG was editor-in-chief of "The Campus" from September, 1937, until June, 1938. The paper reflects during this entire time ROTHENBERG was a member of the American Student Union, and that during this period an intensive campaign was conducted to remove FREDERICK B. ROBINSON, the then president of the City College of New York. ROTHENBERG condemned ROBINSON openly for ROBINSON's attack on the red menace which ROBINSON had previously made in public statements. ROTHENBERG, who it is to be noted is identical with BERNARD SIDNEY REDMONT, was class president in 1938 and also president of the student council.

Further inquiry was made at the City College of New York from a reliable individual, and it was ascertained that there was no person available at the present time who would be in a position to state what ROTHENBERG's activities were while at the college. The former president FREDERICK B. ROBINSON, whom ROTHENBERG attacked, resigned subsequent to ROTHENBERG's graduation. However, it was not believed that he resigned because of the attack made by ROTHENBERG.

The records at Columbia University were reviewed, and it was ascertained that BERNARD SIDNEY ROTHENBERG was admitted to the class of 1939 as a Pulitzer Scholar and had received a scholarship in the Columbia University School of Journalism. The records further reflect that BERNARD SIDNEY ROTHENBERG resided at 1260 East 8th Street, Brooklyn, New York, and on January 4, 1939, changed his name from BERNARD SIDNEY ROTHENBERG to BERNARD SIDNEY REDMONT. The only record of this change of name was made in a notation found in his file at Columbia University.

The records of the Brooklyn, Bronx, and Manhattan County Court records were checked, and it was ascertained there was no record at any of these sources that the name of BERNARD SIDNEY ROTHENBERG had been changed to BERNARD SIDNEY REDMONT. It is possible that the name of BERNARD SIDNEY REDMONT may have been assumed by ROTHENBERG inasmuch as such action is possible under New York State law.

MAIL COVER

The mail cover which is maintained on the subject's residence at 6955 Brooks Lane, Brookmont, Maryland, and also on his office at 1822 Jefferson Place, N. W., provided no new information pertinent to the case during this period.

INFORMATION FURNISHED BY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMANT b2

March 21, 1947

ERNA ROSENBERG, wife of the subject, talked to CARL GREEN and invited him to dinner on the following evening, which CARL declined indicating that it would be necessary for him to rehearse for his radio program over WQQW. The two individuals engaged in miscellaneous conversation which is not being set forth.

March 22, 1947

FAY GLASSER, wife of HAROLD GLASSER, talked to ERNA ROSENBERG. FAY mentioned that HAROLD had left that morning for Moscow. They discussed the party which they had attended on the previous evening and ERNA mentioned that a number of the group used to work together on Russian War Relief. She also commented that this group is not MARY JANE KEENEY's present crowd.

March 24, 1947

ALLAN ROSENBERG conversed with Miss POWELL and with NIP SHARFLAN at his office. ALLAN inquired of Miss POWELL if CARL MARZANI.

had been in. She indicated that he had picked up the material which ROSENBERG had prepared for him. SHARLAN mentioned that there was a letter for him from PAUL BRODY (phonetic). He also mentioned there was a note from JESSE ROSENBERG).

On this same date ALLAN ROSENBERG talked to CARL MARZANI and they discussed some material that ROSENBERG had prepared for CARL, apparently in reference to his present case. ALLAN told CARL that he wished to examine the material once again before he gives it his final approval.

March 25, 1947

In a conversation between ALLAN ROSENBERG and his wife they discussed the necessity of moving. It is noted that their home has been sold and the owner desires possession. As yet the ROSENBERGS have not found another place to live.

On this same date PAUL BRODY had a conversation with ALLAN ROSENBERG. The conversation was of a business nature and indicated that apparently BRODY is endeavoring to refer legal business to ROSENBERG. Under the circumstances the contents of the conversation is not being set forth.

March 30, 1947

ALLAN ROSENBERG conversed with BILL KOPILOVITZ and during the conversation ALLAN mentioned that he had filed suit for CARL GREEN against the Federal Works Agency. He explained that CARL had been laid off by Federal Works and the Civil Service Commission instructed that CARL be returned to his job but Federal Works did not take this action. ROSENBERG pointed out that they were asking for $5,00 or $6,000 in damages.

After talking to BILL, ALLAN talked to BEATRICE KOPILOVITZ and they mentioned radio station W. J. BEATRICE was quite upset about the difficulty which the station is having and indicated that it has been hurt by the fact that it has been linked with Communists and Communism. ALLAN commented that he doesn't know what the station will do since they are in financial straits and do need money.

~~SECRET~~~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

On this same date MARSHALL McDUFFY talked to ALLAN ROSENBERG. MARSHALL indicated he would be in Washington for a day or two and hopes to return for a longer stay next month. He indicated he wanted to feel the pulse of events in Washington and ROSENBERG commented he would not be very welcome in Washington just now. Among other things mentioned, McDUFFY commented that the Greek situation has "turned his stomach". They discussed the indictment of CARL MARZANI at the State Department and ROSENBERG indicated his disgust with the lack of liberalism. He also indicated that he is handling MARZANI's case. McDUFFY indicated his distaste for President Truman's recent Executive Order authorizing the discharge of disloyal employees. ROSENBERG remarked that Franklin Roosevelt would turn over in his grave if he knew what was going on. ROSENBERG indicated he is composing a letter regarding this order to the New York Times. Both men indicated that they felt it would be a denial of the right to work for the Federal Government and that this in turn is a denial of civil liberties and of Constitutional rights. ROSENBERG and McDUFFY also mentioned MARY JANE KENEY and JACK FISCHER. McDUFFY commented that FISCHER had secured several commissions for MARY JANE KENEY to write articles and mentioned that he has a feud with FISCHER indicating that he and FISCHER had been on a mission to Russia and that FISCHER wrote a book on the mission in which he feels the facts were distorted.

At the conclusion of the conversation the two men agreed to get together for a longer talk.

On this same date CARL GREEN talked to ERNA and ALLAN ROSENBERG. CARL mentioned he had been at PHILLIP'S (DUNAWAY) home with MARY JANE KENEY. They discussed MARY JANE's plans to go to Japan and ERNA inquired if these plans failed. CARL replied that they were just "delayed".

It should be noted that during the pertinent period the informant has advised that the ROSENBERGS have continued their usual social contacts with such individuals as HAROLD and FAYE GLASSER, WARREN and EMILY SHARFMAN, HEATRICE and BILL KOPLOVITZ, EDNA and WALTER SALANT and CARL GREEN.

Inasmuch as conversations reported by the informant between the ROSENBERGS and these individuals are not significant and reflect merely contacts of a social nature, they are not being set forth.

GEORGE SILVERMAN (X) u

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent H. DUDLEY PAYNE from March 16 through March 31, 1947.

A mail cover placed on the home of this subject during the above period met with negative results. (X) u

Confidential Informant [REDACTED] furnished the following information concerning SILVERMAN's activities during the above period. b2 b7c

[March 16, 1947:] (X) u

GEORGE SILVERMAN was in contact with DOROTHY KAPLAN at which time DOROTHY explained that they would be unable to come over to the SILVERMAN's that evening; however, she would have her husband contact GEORGE. (X) u

GEORGE SILVERMAN was in contact with MURRAY LATIMER at which time GEORGE explained that he and SARAH would be over to the LATIMER's that evening. (X) u

IRVING KAPLAN and GEORGE SILVERMAN were in conversation at which time they expressed regret that they would be unable to get together while KAPLAN was in New York. GEORGE stated that he was going to see MURRAY LATIMER that evening. They then discussed the possibility of KAPLAN's going in business with LATIMER. During this conversation, KAPLAN said that he had been in contact with LEE PRESSMAN and NAT WHITE. (X) u

An individual, known only to the informant as PARKER, was in contact with GEORGE at which time they discussed the fact that they had not seen each other for ten years. SILVERMAN invited PARKER for dinner which invitation was accepted by him. JOE SILVERMAN was in contact with his brother, GEORGE, at which time GEORGE wanted to know if there was anything new at the Treasury. JOE then advised GEORGE of LUD's (ULLMAN) resignation and was probably going to take a vacation. JOE stated that LUD resigned for the reason that ORNICE (PH) was made Associate Director and took over functions which LUD thought he should have had. (X) u

They then had a discussion concerning HARRY WHITE and GEORGE stated that he would not have time to see HARRY this week but would (X) u probably see him next week. They also mentioned an article in a magazine about Argentina which related to LAUCHLIN CURRIE's planning the economy of the country with a Franco and a Nazi. [LAUCHLIN CURRIE] (X) u

[March 18, 1947: (X) u]

"HARRY SCHULSON attempted to contact GEORGE SILVERMAN and upon ascertaining that he was not home, requested SARAH have GEORGE call him at Dupont 6000 when GEORGE returned. (X) u"

[March 19, 1947: (X) u]

JOE SILVERMAN had a long conversation with SARAH SILVERMAN during which time JOE advised SARAH that HAROLD GLASSER had just come back from two weeks in Trieste and apparently was going to Moscow, although he did not particularly want to go as traveling was so bad. SARAH wanted to know what was the story in back of LUD's resignation but JOE was unable to explain. SARAH mentioned that GREGG had been out of a job and she did not know how people could live without working. She did mention that LUD didn't have to worry as his father was a millionaire. SARAH complained about not seeing very much of GEORGE as he was home so seldom and then when he was home, he went out quite a lot. Apparently GEORGE is having great difficulty in locating an apartment in New York City so that SARAH can move up with him. (X) u

[March 23, 1947: (X) u]

An individual, known to the informant as DAVE, (apparently DAVE WEINTRAUB), was in contact with GEORGE SILVERMAN and they discussed a business deal in which LAUCHLIN CURRIE, FERLIAN, and GEORGE had participated. GEORGE remarked that he is now living at 39 East 29th Street; telephone Murray Hill 4-6605. During this conversation it was indicated that GEORGE was dissatisfied with his position and indicated that he could leave at any time. HARRY WHITE was in contact with GEORGE SILVERMAN at which time they made arrangements to go out to the park that morning and HARRY stated specifically he was not to play. (HARRY WHITE and GEORGE SILVERMAN have in the past played volley ball together.) (X) u

IRVING KAPLAN was in contact with SARAH SILVERMAN and wanted to make a dinner engagement. However, they decided that the KAPLANS would come over to the SILVERMANS a while in the afternoon as GEORGE was out and would be back later. (X) u

~~SECRET~~~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

HARRY WHITE was again in touch with GEORGE SILVERMAN at which time they discussed a business venture with MURRAY LATLER and HARRY wanted GEORGE to stress it with MURRAY and GEORGE agreed to contact MURRAY later in the day. GEORGE was in contact with MURRAY and mentioned that HARRY was probably resigning his job and going back into the practice of consultant work. GEORGE wondered if MURRAY would like to go in with HARRY. MURRAY expressed an interest in this work and agreed to get in touch with HARRY for a conversation pertaining to such a venture. (S)u

SILVERMAN again contacted HARRY WHITE. GEORGE told HARRY that he had been in contact with MURRAY who agreed to talk with HARRY but that MURRAY had acted so funny, he didn't want to push it. HARRY agreed to give MURRAY a ring and have lunch with him during the early part of the week. (S)u

IRVING KAPLAN was in contact with SILVERMAN at which time SILVERMAN discussed with KAPLAN the conversation with HARRY WHITE and MURRAY LATLER; and GEORGE told KAPLAN that apparently MURRAY was just figuring in terms of himself for the time being. (S)u

[March 25, 1947:] (S)u

GEORGE and his son RICHARD were in conversation with SARAH SILVERMAN and GEORGE mentioned that he would not be in Washington for that weekend. RICHARD then told his mother that he could see nothing in Physics for him and that he was thinking of going to the Institute of Russian Relations and Slovak Languages. SARAH said that it didn't make sense to her as it was such a radical departure from what he had talked about in the past. (S)u

By letter dated April 2, 1947, the New York Office furnished the following information concerning JANUAR D. BOVE who has been in contact with GEORGE SILVERMAN. (S)u

A review of the indices of the New York Field Division revealed

It must be difficult enough as it is without going through an actual investigation. Hounds are evidently on the loose every here," b2 b7D

It is apparent to informant that MARY JANE KEENEY has advised her husband of the termination of employment of NATHAN GREGORY SILVERMASTER with War Assets Administration and indicated that ULLMANN was experiencing somewhat the same difficulties.

On March 13, 1947, according to this informant, ZELMA REIN said she had contacted ANNIE STEIN at which time ZELMA said ANNIE stated "they raised it." (evidently ZELMA and MARY had discussed a possible meeting place for a group that would include both white and negro people. They had considered a church.) ZELMA said ANNIE had suggested that they raise the issue again to see if they had any objections and that MARY should casually say she had a few people (negroes?) who may attend. ZELMA said that the Public Library could (S) u be used as a meeting place because they do not require segregation when using their facilities. (S)u

According to the informant on March 14, 1947, MARY WHEELER attempted to reach MIROY WELLS at his home on Tauxemont Road, Alexandria, Virginia and at his office at the State Department with negative results. When she contacted the State Department, she left a message for him to contact DONALD WHEELER. On the same date MIROY WELLS spoke to MARY WHEELER at which time she advised him that they would be at his house tomorrow evening but that they would probably be late inasmuch as they had to pick up SAM and PAULA VANHYNING at the Willard at 8 P.M. They were also to pick up BOB and HELEN BERNARD. MIROY said OSCAR and EDNA GASS would not be able to come. According to MARY, DOROTHY said BETTY, BILL and IDA were going to get together at BETTY'S house and make them. ZELMA said she would like to have them put in the churches this summer. MARY asked if FRANK STUCK would help make the posters. MARY also advised ZELMA that LAY WOLFMEIN would join the auxiliary whenever GLADYS MERSCH could attend a meeting. (This conversation is believed to pertain to the CIO Women's Auxiliary who were planning a protest against the sales tax in the state of Maryland.) (S)u

On March 21, 1947, according to the informant a Mr. NURNBERG spoke to DONALD WHEELER at which time WHEELER advised him that his wife had been talking to ANNIE STEIN yesterday and that ANNIE had told her about a deal out in Idaho. DON said he was out of a job and wanted to find out about it. NURNBERG said he knows a fellow by the name of JOSEPH KUSHNER who is a good friend of TOM WINSTON. DON also knows him. He has just taken over a Navy school out there and is organizing it into an undergraduate college and trade school and is looking for people to teach. He has about 900 students and the place is located (S)u

NERNBERG also asked if DON knows GORDON GRIFFITH. GRIFFITH is teaching at this school now. DON said he was very much interested and will write to NERNBERG. The address is Farragut College, Farragut, Idaho. NERNBERG asked how GEORGE was getting along and DON said he gets along well both with his own office and with his colleagues and even with the British. DON said various people have been on GEORGE'S trail such as Congressmen, Senators and etc. but so far it has all blown over of course. DON said that the time may come when one of them does not blow over. On the same date the informant advised that MARY WHEELER informed ANNIE STEIN she had been getting the cold shoulder on MacArthur Boulevard about putting up the posters. (anti-sales tax?) ANNIE said they were getting a newspaper photographer at 10 A.M. tomorrow to take a picture of a mother and her four children. ANNIE asked MARY to come down to 12th and F tomorrow for a radio broadcast. (Apparently in connection with an anti-sales tax campaign). MARY said she and the children would be there. ANNIE said she would call MARY and let her know whether she and ARTHUR would be able to get out to WHEELER'S on Sunday afternoon. MARY told ANNIE that DON was following up the lead ANNIE gave about the job and has sent a night letter to GORDON GRIFFITH. (S) u
